

Mexican Buckeye

Ungnadia speciosa

A drought tolerant, sun loving, native flowering tree. The limbs are covered with pink flowers in March & then the tree produces interesting & ornamental seedpods. Mexican Buckeye is normally a multi-trunked 18' tree. Requires good drainage.

