AGING & DISABILITY RESOURCE CENTERS

“Supporting Nebraskans by providing useful information, assistance and education on community services and long-term care options.”

WHAT IS ADRC NEBRASKA?

The Aging and Disability Resource Center (ADRC) is a pilot program established by the Nebraska Legislature in 2015.

---

The ADRC assists Nebraskans in accessing services and supports such as:

- In-Home Assistance
- Medicare/Medicaid
- Housing
- Financial Assistance
- Transportation
- Behavioral Health Services
- Legal Services
- Medical Care
- Developmental Disability Services
- Assistive Technology

---

WHO CAN BENEFIT FROM THE ADRC?

The ADRC provides information, assistance, and education on community services and long-term care options for:

- ✓ Seniors (age 60+);
- ✓ People with disabilities of all ages; and
- ✓ Family members, caregivers & advocates for the above

WHAT DOES THE ADRC PROVIDE?

The ADRC maintains a public website with descriptions and contact information of resources, supports, and services of value to seniors, people with disabilities and family members, caregivers & advocates. The website is available to the public at:

ADRCNebraska.org

---

ADRC staff are available over the phone or through face-to-face meetings to assist eligible people and/or their representatives in making informed choices about the services and settings that best meet the person's needs.
