ISTRIA

Every now and then, life surprises us by reminding us how beautiful it can be. Rich in colors and excitement, full of joy and delight, very simple, cheerful. Sometimes we experience that moment while grilling with friends, in an evening walk with the person we love, with the smell of morning coffee...

But what if we told you that this is not about the moment at all, but about the place? About the place where you are always at your best. The place that invites you to be spontaneous, daring, and smiling. The place where you feel life as it should be. That place is called Istria.

The place that inspires us.

NATURAL STONE

Drawing inspiration from the materials that surround us and guided by the wisdom and expertise of our ancestors in craftsmanship, stone we embarked on our journey with the Istrian stone at its heart. The very quarries that once provided stone for the of Venetian construction architecture continue to be the source of our materials today.

We always choose materials that share the same characteristics: durability, quality, and beauty. Natural stone has excellent technical and mechanical properties in terms of absorption, freezing, and wear. It is incredibly durable and available in various finishes: polished, sandblasted, burnt or rigatto.

The inspiration, the material.

THE STORY

Legacy.

Working with stone and similar materials is in the family's blood. Our legacy traces to 1995 when Stefano's grandfather and father started a business of natural stone processing. Their experience has been transferred to him, and he used it to create the first outdoor shower made of stone. His father is still active and now serves as our manufacturing advisor. We believe that it is crucial to have someone with experience on board.

We always deliver products of the very best quality. All our products carefully are engineered, manufactured, and internally tested; ensuring that they abide by our high standards of quality and performance. All of that to deliver the very best solutions to our clients. Most of our products are designed in-house, while Sandro Užila, a designer with whom we share the same values and philosophy, is the creator of particular design collections.

Bringing the outdoors indoors, and infusing our living spaces with plants and natural elements, undeniably uplifts our spirits. Yet, a similarly revitalizing effect can be achieved by taking the indoors outdoors. The trend of outdoor spa areas and garden bathtubs has gained immense popularity. While initially embraced by upscale hotels and retreats, this concept can be seamlessly replicated at home.

The KADA represents a selection of outdoor bathtubs made from natural stone Kanfanar. These bathtubs offer a luxurious and relaxing bathing experience whilst immersed in nature.

An outdoor bathtub is a lovely addition to give any garden a touch of luxury, particularly when combined with an outdoor shower. It's a clever way to create a spa-like vibe without going all out with a hot tub or pool.
