Flash Triangles may be better than Flash Cards

Enforces the idea that multiplication and division are inverse functions of each other. Same with addition and subtraction.

Patterns or the idea of opposites helps the mind recall information