

Language Experience

- Initiate a conversation
- Have your learner retell an experience or a memory
- Record the story exactly as the learner tells it to you
- Keep the incorrect grammar and any slang
- Read the story back to the student and ask if they would like to make any changes
- Practice reading the story together
- Have the learner read the story back to you
- Use words within the story to create new learning experiences