Adopted December 2025

RULES AND GUIDELINES FOR ALL EXHIBITORS

The Bay County Fair and Youth Exposition (BCFYE) Board of Directors reserves the final and absolute right to interpret the rules and arbitrarily settle all matters, questions, and differences in regard to these rules. Further, these rules may be modified or deleted as deemed necessary by the BCFYE Board of Directors. Disregard of these rules and any regulations may result in forfeit of all premiums, rights, and privileges without recourse. Exhibitor tags and/or ribbons have no value as to payment of premiums as they are determined from judging records only. All premium monies are contingent upon available funds. In case the receipts of the fair are insufficient to pay the expenses and premiums in full, the premiums may be pro-rated among those entitled to the same. Errors must be called to the attention of the BCFYE Board of Directors, in writing, no later than one week after premiums payment. The BCFYE Board of Directors ensures diligence in the case and protection of all exhibits after their arrival to the correct display area, but under no circumstances will the Management or BCFYE Board of Directors be responsible for the loss, theft, injury, or damage by fire, lightning, wind, or any other agency, and the management thereof shall be indemnified by the exhibitor(s) of any and all legal or other proceedings relating thereto. The BCFYE Board of Directors reserves the right to refuse any entry form.

- In case of space limitations, pens and stalls will be assigned as follows: Current Youth Exhibitor that has previously shown at the Bay County Fair, Bay County Youth, Bay County Adults, Non-Resident Youth, Non-Resident Adults. Application for stalls and pens must be made at the time of registration.
- All entries must be listed in the Premium Book. One Entry per Class, per Exhibitor.
- Superintendents reserve the right to combine, split, or cancel classes/events.
- Youth exhibitor's showing age will be the age they are as of January 1 of the current calendar year.
 - Beginner 7yrs. & under (noncompetitive – ribbon only)
 - Young 8 – 11 yrs.
 - Junior 12 – 14 yrs.
 - Senior 15 – 19 yrs.
- Exhibitors and their parent/guardian intending to participate in any youth project (livestock, horses, and/or still projects) must review these rules and regulations and sign a form indicating they have done so. The form must be returned to the BCFYE Office by May 15 each year.

Deadline exceptions may be made by Fairboard Superintendents for new exhibitors and other special circumstances.

Code of Conduct

Exhibitors as well as their family members who violate this Code of Conduct are subject to disciplinary action including but not limited to cancellations of all premiums as well as suspension from current and future BCFYE events, at the discretion of the Bay County Fair Board. The Bay County Fair and Youth Expo Code of Conduct requires all exhibitors to refrain from the following:

- Behavior that is unruly, disruptive, or illegal.
- Any illegal activity, including possession or consumption of alcoholic beverages by minors or illegal drugs on the fairgrounds
- Foul, obscene, threatening, offensive or abusive language, gestures, or actions.
- Failing to follow instructions of show personnel.
- Fighting or physical violence of any type.
- All youth 12 yrs. and under must be accompanied by an adult for all activities, including cleanups.
- Any exhibitor caught destroying property will be banned from participating in the Bay County Fair and Youth Exposition for up to 2 years.
- Above all, be KIND, HELPFUL & HAVE FUN!

Rules and Guidelines for All Exhibitors 8–19 Years

- Exhibitors must be able to safely exhibit their animal(s) in the show ring or be separated and judged from their pen/stall as determined by the Fair Board Superintendent.
- An exhibitor must exhibit his or her own animal. If an exhibitor cannot exhibit his or her own animal due to an injury, illness, or a situation that has been confirmed by the Fair Board Superintendent, then he or she may have a person in their own age group exhibit the animal for market and non-market classes only. Prior to showing the appropriate Fair Board Superintendents must approve this change.
- During the fair, exhibitors are required to bathe and fit their own animals; a parent/guardian may only assist.
- Only people appointed by the Fair Board Superintendent will be allowed to enter the show ring.
- Physical color pictures of large market animals, including alternates, must be submitted to the BCFYE Office by May 15 each year. Ear tag numbers should be visible in all animal pictures submitted.
- All exhibitors showing and/or selling an animal must attend at least one pre-fair set-up event. A few dates will be given each year. If the exhibitor is not available, prior arrangements must be made with a superintendent for an alternate volunteer time or an alternate person to complete the duties.
- All exhibitors must complete a minimum of two (2) hours of volunteering for the Bay County Fair Board during fair week. Failure to complete the required number of hours will result in loss of premiums. To sign up, a link is available on the BCFYE website: www.baycountyfair.com/forms
- All Livestock exhibitors must attend a post-fair clean-up Sunday morning. If the exhibitor is not available, prior arrangements must be made with a superintendent for an alternate volunteer time or an alternate person to complete the duties.
- If showing ONLY Still Projects, barn clean ups are not required. ONLY Volunteer Time is required.

Rules and Guidelines for All Beginner Exhibitors Under 8 Years

- If youth exhibitors are to have direct involvement with an animal, the contact must take place under the direct one-on-one assistance of a responsible parent, guardian, or adult volunteer.
- Exhibitors who are 7 years old and under may be involved with an animal on a halter or lead. They must be directly assisted one-on-one by a parent, guardian, or an adult volunteer who is on the ground holding the animal's halter or lead. This includes cattle, sheep, goats, and horses.
- Exhibitors who are 7 years old and under may be involved with non-halter animals such as swine, companion animals, poultry and rabbits. They must be directly assisted one-on-one by a parent, guardian, or an adult volunteer who is beside the youth.
- Exhibitors in this age range will be uniformly recognized for participation.
- Exhibitors in this age range will not participate in competitive classes or the livestock auction at the Bay County Fair.
- Beginners 7yrs. & under are exempt from volunteer requirements.

POLICIES PERTAINING TO ALL LIVESTOCK ANIMALS

- Goats, beef, swine and sheep are to be considered large animals.
- Rabbits, waterfowl, wildfowl, and poultry are to be considered small animals.
- All animals must participate in market classes to sell in the livestock auction.
- All large, male market animals must have been castrated.
- All female market animals must not be pregnant
- If an exhibitor has sold a market animal at any other county fair within 365 days of the Bay County Fair, they may not show that same market species in the market class at the Bay County Fair.

- All animals must meet all current USDA (United States Department of Agriculture) and MDARD (Michigan Department of Agriculture and Rural Development) testing and tagging requirements prior to admission in the livestock barn.
- Should an animal become lame, sick, or die prior to judging, the exhibitor may obtain permission from the Fairboard Superintendents to substitute another animal.
- If submitting an alternate animal, you must submit a photo by May 15, the same as your primary animal. It needs to be clear which animal is primary and which is the alternate for the species. Families can have one alternate per exhibitor or per family. Alternates can only be used if the primary animal becomes lame, sick, or dies.
- During the Fair, no drugs or supplements may be administered to any animal without consent of the superintendents.
- All entries will be judged using the Danish System (A-B-C) and receive corresponding ribbon. When there is only one entry in a class, first place premium money will be paid only if the animal is deemed worthy.
- Dates and times will be determined by the BCFYE Board to weigh in, admit and release all animals.
- The weight recorded at weigh in will be the showing and selling weight.
- Animals may be re-weighed one time after initial weigh-in. Re-weigh must be completed before the end of designated weigh-in time. This may be done only if the animal produces a weight that is lower than the minimum weight required to sell in the Bay County Fair Youth Livestock Auction. All youth wishing to re-weigh an animal must remain in the barn in order to re-weigh.
- If an animal does not make minimum weight, youth may request to show that animal in non-market and showmanship classes if they do not already have an entry in that class.
- All exhibits brought to the fair must be clean, dry, free of disease, free of parasites and uninjured. Any animals deemed sick, dirty etc. will be sent home at the discretion of the Superintendents.
- Upon entry into the livestock barn, all animals will be inspected by a Fair Board Superintendent or his/her designee to determine suitability.
- Sick or injured exhibits will be released or removed only by the direction of the Fairboard Superintendents prior to the end of the fair.
- Any exhibits removed from the fairgrounds before the designated release time without permission of the superintendents will result in the revocation of premiums.
- Animals and Barn Decorations can be removed on Saturday by Superintendent's discretion. Removal times will be posted in the barns. Exceptions can be made on a case-by-case basis. Requests for exceptions MUST be communicated to a superintendent PRIOR to fair arrival to be considered.
- The same animal cannot be shown in both a market and non-market class, even by different exhibitors. However, the same animal can be used in multiple showmanship classes.
- Animals are not to be exhibited in multiple market/non-market classes. Animals exhibited as a single may not also be exhibited as a pen.
- No exhibited animals are allowed in the camping area during fair week.

Ear Tagging

- All animals MUST have the appropriate USDA tagging prior to entry in the barn.
- Animals cannot be unloaded without the required official USDA tags in place.
- The Bay County Fairboard will NOT be tagging animals upon their arrival at the fair.
- Goats & Sheep MUST have a scrappies tag in place prior to check-in to enter the barn.
- USDA tags can be obtained from breeder or at: https://www.michigan.gov/mdard/animals/id_movement

Rules and Guidelines for the Youth Livestock Auction

- All exhibitors are required to contribute 3% of their Youth Livestock Auction income to the Bay County Fair and Youth Exhibition to be used for general expenses incurred throughout the year and during the fair and auction. This amount will be deducted by the market auction clerk before checks are mailed to exhibitors.
- Once an animal has been judged in a market class during the fair, the exhibitor has agreed to sell the animal at the Bay County Fair & Youth Expo Youth Livestock Auction. No animals may be removed from the sale once judging has been completed.
- Exhibitors may register for a maximum of three (3) livestock market entries.
- The market entries cannot be the same species, with the exception of market production Chickens and Ducks. For example, an exhibitor selling a single market chicken can also sell a pen of 3 production hens, but they cannot also sell a pen of 3 market chickens.
- The buyer has the right to do with the animal whatever he or she sees fit, including but not limited to donating it back to the youth, sending it to resale, taking it live, or butchering it. MDARD requirements must be followed at all times.
- Sale order of all market species will be rotated each year following the adopted rotation: goats, ducks, lambs, geese, rabbits, swine, chicken, steer, pheasant/chukar, turkeys with the top listed species rotating to the bottom of the order in the following year.
- All exhibitors who sell a market project at the Bay County Fair Livestock Auction must complete Youth for the Quality Care of Animals (YQCA) training annually. YQCA is designed to educate youth in eliminating volatile drug residues, increase food safety practices, and overall improve the knowledge of animal care and management practices. Proof of completing the course must be turned in with fair entry registration.
- Each family is responsible to contribute to the buyer's reception.
- No glitter or paint may be put on any animals during the market sale.
- All exhibitors are responsible for the delivery of all purchased animals to either the stockyard, processor, or to the buyer directly live or processed. Any exhibitor that fails to deliver any purchased animal to their buyers within 1 month of the auction will not be allowed to sell in the following year's sale and must return the funds received from the sale.
- Exhibitors MUST post a thank you with the buyer's name above all market animals by noon on Friday following the auction.

- Market pheasants/chukars/quail are shown as a pen of three and must consist of one male and two females or two males and one female.

- Market pheasants/chukars/quail are offered to buyers during the auction “for release only.” Youth and buyers agree on a time and place to meet for the release of birds.
- Market birds must be released within two (2) weeks of the conclusion of the fair.
- There is no weight requirement for pheasants/chukars/quail.

Livestock Barn Rules

- No sleeping in the barn.
- No open-toed footwear is allowed in animal pens, stalls, or alleyways when handling/working with animals.
- Alleyways, stalls, and pens must be kept clean at all times.
- The Fair Board, with the recommendation of superintendents, will decide appropriate bedding for animals. Youth will be required to purchase and use the bedding deemed appropriate.
- All animals in the barn must be checked for food and water at approximately 10am and 8pm. The barn superintendents will use the following as guidelines to enforce this policy:
 - I: First Warning: Exhibitor verbally notified by superintendent
 - II: Second Warning: Cage will be tagged, and the Fair Board will take action.
- The barn will be cleaned each day by 10am. Exhibitors are responsible for keeping their pens and the barn clean throughout the day. The barn superintendents will use the following as guidelines to enforce this policy:
 - I: First Warning: Exhibitor verbally notified by superintendent.
 - II: Second Warning: Cage will be tagged, and the Fair Board will take action.
- Fees for pens left dirty at the end of fair week will be fined $25.00 for small animals and $75.00 for large animals. Checks will be made payable to “Bay County Fair and Youth Exposition”.
- All animals must be removed by 8am Sunday, and the barn cleaned by the date and time designated by the Fair Board. Exhibitors will be required to sign-in and sign-out of barn clean-up at the closing of the fair. This is mandatory for all exhibitors with an animal housed in the livestock barn.
- Upon decorating, the exhibitor’s name must be on the cage/pen.
- All animals in the barn must be a registered fair entry.
- All feed must be stored neatly in an appropriate, sealed container in a designated area.
- All food and water dishes must be appropriate to suit the animal so as not to be tipped over. Hay bags are optional; if used they must be hung in a safe manner. The bottom of the hay bag must not be lower than the point of shoulders.
- Large animals may only be removed from the stall with an adult’s supervision. Traffic areas must be blocked off when doing so to keep the public safe.
- Animals must be washed in the designated area at the back center of the barn. You MUST clean up after your animal once you are done washing.
- For the safety of your animal and passing spectators, stall doors shall be closed at all times, except when entering and exiting the stall/pen.
- If you are aware of a violation of any of these rules please contact a barn superintendent.

POLICIES PERTAINING TO ALL EQUINE

- All equine must meet all current USDA (United States Department of Agriculture) and MDARD (Michigan Department of Agriculture and Rural Development) testing requirements prior to admission in the horse barn. A current negative EIA test (Coggins) is required for any equine species exhibited. A copy of negative Coggins test for animal entered must be attached to the fair entry form or emailed/given to the Superintendent PRIOR to fair registration deadline. Any exhibitor of an equine that does not have the correct Coggins test on file with the fair office will bear the sole responsibility of any fines assessed by MDARD.
- Proof of vaccines are not required but having them done is HIGHLY recommended.
- All animals in the barn must be a registered fair entry.
- An entry form must be submitted for each equine and rider combination.
- The age of equines will be computed from January 1 of the current fair year.
- Equine must be inspected by a Fairboard Superintendent or designated representative upon unloading.
- All exhibits brought to the fair must be clean, of appropriate body condition, free of disease/parasites and uninjured. Any animals deemed sick, injured or unsafe will be sent home under Superintendent and/or Veterinarian discretion.

- Buckets of bleach/water will be available and poop stains must be scrubbed.
- The aisle in front of stall(s) must be swept clean as well.
- Stall(s) will be inspected by the Superintendent and upon approval you will be free to leave.
- There is no need to come back on Sunday if you haul out and clean Saturday UNLESS you have Livestock then you will have to help with Livestock barn cleanup as well.
- Fees for stalls left dirty at the end of fair week will be fined $75.00. Checks will be made payable to "Bay County Fair and Youth Exposition".
- If you are aware of a violation of any of these rules, please contact a barn superintendent.

POLICIES PERTAINING TO ALL STILL PROJECTS

- Judging will take place in-person at the designated judging area. Location, date and times will be announced each year.
- Projects limited to 25 entries per exhibitor.
- All exhibits must be the work of the exhibitor and have been completed during the time from the end of last year's fair until the present fair.
- Entries will not be accepted or changed after the registration deadline.
- Each exhibitor must securely attach a completed exhibitor's tag to their entries, or they will not be judged.
- All projects must be shown by the exhibitor that entered the project unless prior arrangements have been made with the Fairboard Superintendent.
- Only youth exhibitors, superintendents, and volunteers guiding youth will be allowed in the judging area during judging.
- Any youth exhibiting must be in line 15 minutes prior to the end of posted judging time.
- Each club or youth can decorate an area in the Canteen for their projects to be displayed after judging.
- After the youth has all of their projects judged, please take them to the Canteen for display (with their club, if applicable).
- If the youth receives an Outstanding ribbon, please secure the ribbon to the project, and place the project on the Outstanding Exhibits table in the Canteen. Judges will review all Outstanding projects for consideration of high honors.
- Projects and any decorations will need to be picked up and the display area cleaned by noon on the Sunday following the close of the fair. Projects may be picked up beginning Saturday from 9 pm-10pm and Sunday beginning at 8AM. Any projects not picked up by 12:00PM Sunday will be disposed of.

- When disposing of projects, please take them to the dumpster on the west side of the Canteen.
- Exhibitors are responsible for cleaning up their Canteen area after the fair, including sweeping the floor and putting away the tables used.
