

SWAG BAG SPONSOR

Bella Chic is a one-of-a-kind, pop-up consignment sale event for savvy, environmentally conscious women seeking brand name labels at unbeatable prices!

The next Bella Chic sale takes place March 6-8, 2020 at Transitown Plaza in Williamsville, NY!

We are seeking swag bag sponsors who desire a unique opportunity to connect with new customers, present new products, and treat our shoppers to something special in our swag bags! Our women are potential customers looking for exceptional beauty, health, fashion, fitness, financial and educational products especially from other local women-owned businesses!

As a swag bag sponsor, you'll have access to the approximately 100 women attending our ticketed VIP Private Sale event on Friday, March 6th from 5-9pm. In addition, we will promote your business through our popular social media networks and email lists.

If you have a brand or product for women, please complete the form below (email to krist@wnybellakids.com) and make payment on our website @ www.wnybellachic.com/swag
