Thank you for the edification and embrace of the opportunity, folks! Liwaru, I was thinking precisely of CAFE...but didn't want to be presumptuous! 😊

Perhaps we can talk more about this at our meeting next week, and/or set up another time outside of that time together.

Peace, everyone.

I would be happy to help coordinate something to support returning to school with a lens of collectivism and equity.

Let me know how I can help support the effort. 😊

Hello from Hood River!

What an evening, what I day today! I was fortunate to join some high school classes today and that filled my cup.

About DACA, we haven't had requests from families but I am disseminating the information during our family meetings and via our Migrant Program Facebook page.

I love the idea of reflecting together about the return to school.

Looking forward to our next meeting.

Hi Klarissa and All!

First off, I hope everyone is well amid the tumult. Our day started with an edifying visit from Gholdy Muhammad and ended with footage of violence in our nation's capital, and I imagine others experienced similar. My love is with all of you.

Klarissa, thanks for putting the question out there, and know that we are in exactly the same place that y'all are at the moment. We have some folks in our district who are advocating from within our Association to "bargain for equity" when the next contract negotiation comes up, but it hasn't gained traction. I'll keep you posted as I can, and please do the same as you are able.

Something we're experiencing as a district is an increase in requests for information about DACA status due to recent federal-level communications, and I am curious to know if other districts are experiencing similar inquiries and, if so, how they are addressing them. I'll admit to being relatively uninformed in this area, so insights are welcome.

On a different note, I am curious how everyone and their districts are approaching and handling the conversations and actions around the possible return-to-instruction, as I imagine the conversations have heightened since Governor Brown's announcement two weeks ago.

Specifically, I'm feeling concerned about our district making efforts to re-open schools in a way that feels like a big hurry to get back to what we knew and were comfortable with prior to COVID, and not the re-visioning and transformation of the structures and practices that we know inhibit equity. I am worried that we are going to miss an opportunity to enact change during this (hopefully) once-in-a-lifetime moment.

In 2016 I was part of a collective of educators who organized a teach-in held at Lincoln High School--a day where educators gathered in an un-conference model of workshops to discuss and plan for ways to support students and communities during the tumultuousness of the election year. I'm wondering if an event in a similar spirit could be coordinated virtually related to our current context, something along the lines of "Teaching in a time of transformation: What can we do to provide the education our students deserve as we "return" to schools?"

Admittedly, my concern is that we're approaching the challenge of "re-opening" from an individualist mindset--each district working on its own to solve its version of a shared problem--versus a collectivist approach that intentionally solicits voices of students, families, and staff into the conversation and planning.

That was a lot for one email. Take it as a testament to how much I appreciate and rely on this group, and thank you all for your part in this community.

Peace-

Hello There Fellow Equity Warriors!

I am in need of your help. We are in the process of crafting our district Equity policy and a very interesting topic arose. We have a high turnover rate for our staff of color partially due to them having less seniority and being the firsts to go when there are reductions. I'm wondering if any of you have a Certified Union contract or a Classified Union contract that contains language that supports keeping a culturally and/or linguistically diverse staff member over one with more seniority OR language that considers applying an Equity lens to reductions. Our Unions will be more likely to add language like this to their contracts if other Unions have and I'd love to be able to provide them with the contract language. Thank you so much for any help you can offer!

I hope everyone is doing okay and able to enjoy moments of peace amid this physically beautiful and socially tumultuous Fall season.

Recently, I had the good fortune of "meeting" via phone and email Klarissa Hightower, who serves as Executive Administrator for Equity and Inclusion in the Evergreen School District, and thought we could welcome her into this amazing community of leadership and support.

Welcome, Klarissa!

Hello all,

Thank you so much for taking the time to fill out the survey, it looks like the time that works for most folks is Friday 10 am - 11 am.

A recommendation is that we connect with Shelly, Carmen, and Liwaru to coordinate some time for us to potentially meet Quarterly for a few hours and pin down that time so we can connect with one another somehow. We will continue to work to calibrate and coordinate that.

Please be on the lookout I will have the Friday meeting every other week so that those that want it Liwaru and I will continue to hold space and those that can make it once a month we can also hold space for us at that time as well.

You are all in my thoughts and I can not wait to see you again!
