George Autobee

George Autobee, presents The Life and Times of Charles Autobees (whose last name was also spelled Urtebise and Ortivis) 1812-1882. He was a trader, frontiersman, interpreter, fur trapper, military scout, politician, and a founder and builder of the Autobees settlement (Huerfano Village).

George Autobee (change in Spelling from his ancestor) is a Vietnam combat veteran, 1st Marine Corp Division, and was awarded the Purple Heart with gold star.

The presentation demonstrates and serves as an example of his broad background as an author, photojournalist, and demographic census researcher who has published history books, documentaries, as well as, visual programs.
