

Douglas County Farm Bureau Ag Ambassador Program Program Guidelines

Program Overview:

The Ag Ambassador program is open to students who will be seniors in the fall, residing in Douglas County, who is interested in agriculture. Each ambassador will serve a 10-month term starting in October and ending the following July. We will select one ambassador each year.

Purpose:

1. Provide leadership opportunity.
2. Learn about Farm Bureau and how it works from the grassroots up, with emphasis on the resolution and legislative process.
3. Develop students to be spokespersons for agriculture.

Expectations:

1. Ambassadors are encouraged to attend at least 4 of the monthly county board of director meetings. The ambassadors are invited to share input at the monthly meetings but will not be allowed to vote on any motion made.
2. Ambassadors will be encouraged to help develop, implement and participate in any and all Douglas County Farm Bureau programs, meetings, and educational presentations.
3. Ambassadors will be encouraged to participate in any county, district, state and national Farm Bureau meeting or function scheduled in the immediate area.
4. Ambassadors may be invited to participate in one or more overnight trips. Expenses for such trips will be paid by Douglas County Farm Bureau on the approval of the County Board of Directors.
5. Ambassadors are asked to help maintain and enhance the Ag Ambassador Program which will be reviewed annually.
6. Ag Ambassadors are encouraged to join the Farm Bureau Collegiate Chapter their freshman year in college, if offered.
7. Ambassadors will be expected to plan and execute 1 ag education project prior to the end of their term.

Incentives:

1. Douglas County Farm Bureau will provide a Farm Bureau shirt for each Ag Ambassador.
2. Ambassadors may have the opportunity to meet state leaders in agriculture, government, journalism, etc.
3. Scholarships will be provided to Ag Ambassadors completing the program and planning to attend higher education in an agricultural field of study. Ambassadors will be eligible for a scholarship of up to $1000.00 based on their level of participation in the program.

Application Due:

Completed applications must be submitted to Douglas County Farm Bureau at 101 W 10th Street, Suite B, Eudora, Kansas, 66025, or emailed to douglasfb@kfb.org by 8/30/2025 to be eligible. The winner will be notified by 10/1/2025.
