
KOFI ANNAN

Racial Justice Activist,
Author

ABOUT ME

Kofi is an award-winning racial justice activist and two-time award-winning author. He previously served two terms as the president of the Fairfax County NAACP, and Criminal Justice Chair for the Virginia State Conference NAACP.

His branch was awarded the NAACP's Thalheimer Award for being the best branch in the country. His organization, The Activated People led a statewide coalition of over thirty organizations which achieved over a dozen criminal justice reforms.

AWARDS

NAACP Thalheimer Awards
Bookfest First Place Book Award
Outstanding Community Partner Award

PREVIOUS SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

Women's March on Washington
Justice Department Black History
Month Program
National Association of African American Studies Conference
Everytown for Gun Safety Rally
Tinner Hill Heritage Foundation Black History Month Rally
Northern Virginia Community College
Virginia Civic Engagement Table
Commencement

DEMOGRAPHICS AUDIENCE

10K
Likes Average

BOOKS

Bull in a China Shop: Evolution of a
Racial Justice Activist
Leadership in Action: 5 Key Principles of Effective Racial Justice Work

SERVICES

Speaking
Training/Consulting
Content Creation