

Announce Program of Au Sable Church

Na-au-say.—The Au Sable Grove Prsebyterian church will observe its one hundredth anniversary August 14 and 15. On Saturday night, August 14, the members of the church will hold a family night dinner at 6:30 o'clock in the Presbyterian annex in Oswego.

At 8:00 o'clock, in the Oswego Presbyterian church auditorium, a pageant depicting the history of the Au Sable Grove church will be given by the young people of the church, a great many of whom are descendants of the early founders of the church to the sixth and seventh generation. The history of the church will be read in connection with the pageant.

On Sunday morning, August 15, the services will open at 10:30. The Rev. E. S. Martin, a former pastor, will bring the morning message. In the afternoon there will be a presentation of greetings and visitors and former pastors. A tea in the manse with a social hour will close the observance of the anniversary.
