A NOTE FROM OUR EDITOR

Hello, FPCH Members!

November is here and it is a reminder that we should be thankful for many things in our lives.

I know that I try to count my blessings each day I wake up. I am grateful for the beautiful day that God has granted me and others, I am grateful for the people I encounter on a daily basis, and I am grateful for the food on my table and the talents I was granted throughout the years. I hope that you, too, can consider the many reasons you can express gratitude in your lives.

This issue of Light from the Steeple is dedicated to the many ways we as a church community can be thankful for all that we have in our lives. I think of the many opportunities my church family has brought joy to my life and provided me with comfort during difficult times. I am also happy that I can share in the many opportunities to provide for others - through the pantry, through our clothing drive and community dinners, and through numerous other missions that our church offers to the people in and around Hackettstown.

Please feel free to browse through this publication to witness the many opportunities we offer to those in our surrounding community. May you read with joy and know that you all have gifts that you may share with others.

As always, if you have any news you would like to submit for publication, please feel free to see me in church or email me. I always encourage personal stories from our congregation members. I look froward to seeing you each Sunday in worship.

Yours in Christ,
MaryAnn Simmons

A NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ.

" And when he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, 'Put out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch.' 5 And Simon answered, 'Master, we toiled all night and took nothing! But at your word I will let down the nets.' 6 And when they had done this, they enclosed a large number of fish, and their nets were breaking." Luke 5:1-11

In the call to the disciples in the book of Luke, Jesus stands in the fishing boat with them. They had been fishing all night and caught nothing. Their livelihood was being questioned. And in just one moment Jesus encourages them to try again.

As I preached in a sermon, I think that this season of gratitude leads us to pray about how God's net is bigger than the ones we cast on our own. It was out of the abundance of the sea that Jesus spoke to the disciples. And it is out of the abundance of God's world that Jesus speaks to us too. Yet if we are honest we have limited the size of the grace, forgiveness, resource, time, energy, and money that God can give and we can give, too. I believe it's because we aren't well intentioned. I believe it isn't because we don't love God or community. We limit the size because we may need a reminder that God's imagination is greater than ours.

What if the God of all creation is as interested in how we live our lives and we use the gifts that God has given us? And what if the one who created us can help us see what might be impossible on our own. As our world continues to wrestle with what it means to be human in the face of AI, and the wonders who might win a war that seems unending, it is the wonder of God that urges us on. It is in the wonder of an amazing gift of a phone call when we need it. It is in the wonder of one more plate of food when someone is hungry. It is the wonder of a gift that endures. I invite you to pray with me this season and ask God, "how might we be willing to live into the abundance of God's imagination?" For when we do, we build the kingdom of God.

FIRST YOUTH GROUP GATHERING A SUCCESS

BY: MARYANN SIMMONS

Have you ever heard the youth of our congregation is our future? Well, we have approximately 23 youth in grades 6-12 at FPCH and that is an amazing number of kids to reach. On Sunday, October 25th, we had our first youth group gathering which featured eight of our students.

Led by the trio of adults - James Engel, Nadia Hanson, and Betsy Hanson - our kids enjoyed their first event which focused on getting to know each other and playing a variety of Fall games, including guess how many candy corn are in the jar (winner - Achacki), relay race filling a bucket with candy corn (Mikayla, Ani, Angel, Harper - winners), ping pong cup toss (winner - Mikayla), and decorate a human mummy (Veronica, Nadia, Mikayla - winner, featuring Veronica as the mummy). Pastor Erin and MaryAnn Simmons also assisted in judging the friendly competitions. After the games, the students had snack time and brainstormed about future events.

Below are some photos of our games and the winners of our activities. We look forward to another great gathering on November 22nd at the Chapel from 1:30 - 3:30 PM. Hopefully, our youth can bring a friend and more of our young congregation members can enjoy the festivities. Questions? See James Engel, Nadia or Betsy Hanson, MaryAnn Simmons, or Pastor Erin.

SECOND SUNDAY FEATURED COMMUNION EDUCATION

BY: MARYANN SIMMONS

In October, Pastor Erin chose to focus on the story of the Last Supper to give our youngsters an understanding of the purpose behind the communion sacrament. The kids then began telling their own stories about their favorite meal they share with their families and then proceeded to create their own communion placemats.

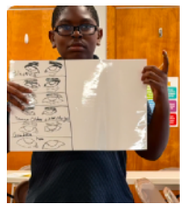

Below are some photos taken during this session that we would like to share with our congregation members. Look at the creativity displayed in these placemats. Photos courtesy of Pastor Erin Hayes-Cook and MaryAnn Simmons

On November 8th, Mrs. Bergman will focus on “All about Thanksgiving.” Kids will decorate an edible Thanksgiving treat, hear stories, and create a craft that will help them understand the harvesting of seeds to sustain and nourish our bodies. In December, we look forward to cookie decorating with Miss Winnie and creating other Christmas crafts with Mrs. Bergman.

We are still seeking volunteers to host an activity in January and the months that follow. If interested, please see MaryAnn Simmons or Pastor Erin. As always, thank you in advance for assisting in maintaining this valuable mission to our children here at FPCH.

HYMN FEST TO OCCUR ON NOV 22

Each year, members of our Senior Choir join efforts with choirs from Gethsemane Lutheran and Panther Valley Ecumenical Churches in the annual Hymn Fest. This year, Hymn Fest will take place on Sunday, November 22 at 7 PM at the Gethsemane Lutheran Church located on 409 East Baldwin Street in Hackettstown on the corner of 4th Street.

The three choirs will combine to sing anthems, and between the anthems will be well-known hymns. All choir members and congregation attendees alike will be raising their voices together in song.

This event is open to the public. You are invited to this joyous evening of favorite hymns and beautiful anthems and we encourage you to bring a friend. The program is FREE of charge, but we do ask that you bring a canned/boxed food donation that will go to our Free Little Pantry.

We look forward to seeing you at Hymn Fest!

HACKETTSTOWN COMMUNITY BAND CONCERT IS 11/15

BY: KAREN CRAMER

The Hackettstown Community Band will perform a concert in the Sanctuary on Sunday, November 15 at 3 PM. We are excited to have them back!

The program features Broadway favorites, stirring marches, and both contemporary and traditional concert band music, including selections from ABBA and Fiddler on the Roof, Elgar's Nimrod, and Pines of Rome. Join us for an entertaining afternoon that celebrates the joy of making music together, with a brief acknowledgment of our veterans.The afternoon promises to be an inspiring and entertaining program celebrating community, creativity, and gratitude.

The Hackettstown Community Band is funded in part by Warren County Division of Cultural & Heritage Affairs. Admission to this concert is free but free-will donations are gratefully accepted.

We hope to see you on the fifteenth!

OCTOBER HIGHLIGHTS

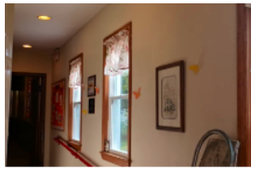

In October, we covered a lot of fun activities with our congregation, including great music events, our Deacons' Clothing Drive, World Communion Sunday, Second Sunday, a Youth Group gathering, our church work day, and some fun costumes on Oct 25 in honor of Halloween. Check out these photos and more throughout the newsletter. Photos courtesy of Pattie Huff, Diane Hull, Lorinda Ravo, MaryAnn Simmons, and James Tischler.

NEWS FROM THE DEACONS

By PAT BUTTS

During the month of October, our Deacons have had many missions to complete, including collecting eyeglasses for the needy, collecting hearing aids for others who cannot afford their own, and finalizing their Fall Clothing Drive, which garnered 2,547 pounds of donations, earning the deacons $514.40.

In addition, they have been setting up special dates for activities in November, including remembering our departed family members and friends on Nov 1st during All Saints Sunday, honoring our veterans on Nov 8th, collecting items for our Little Pantry on Nov 22 to support those in our community during the Thanksgiving Holiday, and decorating our Chrismon Tree on Nov 29th.

Deacon Ministry

Please be sure to read the various articles throughout this newsletter regarding these activities.

If you have any questions about any of our missions, feel free to see one of the Deacons.

A SPECIAL THANK YOU TO HYDRO-MIGHT POWER WASH

As you may have noticed, our church has been power washed and it looks absolutely amazing. Thank you, Hydromight, for beautifying our church and making it a grand site in downtown Hackettstown. We appreciate your kind gesture of giving back to the church. Obviously, if anyone is looking for this service, please reach out to hydromight.com

FPCH CELEBRATES WORLD COMMUNION SUNDAY

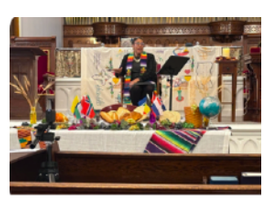

BY: MARYANN SIMMONS

World Communion Sunday is celebrated every year on the first Sunday in October. This year, FPCH was able to capture moments of celebration of the world's languages, by reciting the Lord's Prayer in English, Spanish, and German, and honoring the heritage of our families with a display of various heirlooms collected over the years.

Pastor Erin preached from the book of Philippians 3:4-14 and discussed Paul's impressive Jewish credentials - especially his faultless legal righteousness. In this gospel, Paul reveals his appreciation for gaining righteousness through faith in Christ rather than the law, and expresses his deep desire to know Christ, experience the power of His resurrection, and share in His sufferings. Basically, Paul admits that he is anything but perfect and wishes to look ahead toward the heavenly prize to which God has called him in Christ Jesus. He reveals that his communion with our Lord and Savior is extremely important to all followers of Christ.

Our communion hymn, "This is God's Table" reminds us that we all share in the bread of life and the cup of salvation offered to us during this special ceremony of Christ's last supper.

FALL WORKDAY HELPS SPRUCE UP FPCH GROUNDS

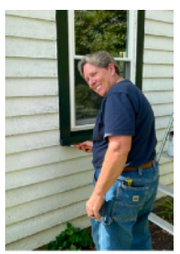

BY: DIANE HULL

Each Spring and Fall our Building and Grounds committee gathers members of the church to help spruce up the church and its grounds. This October 10th, we were able to beautify the outside with the help of about a dozen members. In addition, we removed the air conditioning units in our office spaces and hung new curtains inside. Take a look at some of the before and after images both here and in our October Highlights.

Thank you to the weather for not raining on our day and thank you to all who assisted in making this day such a success. A special thank you goes out to Hydro-Might Power Wash who power-washed our church exterior. The church looks beautiful now on all levels. Photos courtesy of Diane Hull and Lorinda Ravo.

HOMELAND SECURITY GRANT PROJECTS COMPLETED

BY: PETE MILLER

We are very pleased to report that all of the projects that were included in our grant from the NJ Department of Homeland Security have been completed. This grant gave us the opportunity to perform significant security upgrades to our church, office, and preschool. The following is a list of what has been accomplished:

- Installed an alarm system with central station and remote monitoring that includes a variety of security devices. The system also includes temperature sensors that will alert us in the event that there is a problem with the heating system. It also includes water sensors that will notify us if we have any water leaks.
- Installed 3 perimeter lights on each side of the church and new fire escape lighting.
- Replaced 43 windows that include blast/fire retention protection. Replacement windows include all basement, ground level and second floor windows in the office/preschool area. In addition, the six basement windows of the church have been replaced.
- Installed crash bollards to protect the playground, rear entrance and the left side of the church from car damage.

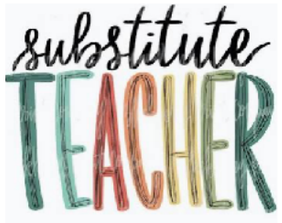

I would like to thank the NJ Department of Homeland Security for all of their help throughout the grant process.

It is important to note that a couple of the projects came in under bid so we have a balance in our original grant award. We will be submitting additional security projects to the state for approval and will be sure to keep the congregation updated once those new projects are approved and completed.

SUNDAY SCHOOL IN NEED OF SUBSTITUTE TEACHERS

BY: MARYANN SIMMONS

As you know, our Sunday School program is growing and that means we need to have people lined up to serve as back up teachers when our regular teachers cannot be here due to prior commitments.

If you are interested in assisting with this program, you do not need to have any teaching experience - just a willingness to engage with our students and help them along with their faith journey. Our teachers will provide you with lesson plans that you can follow or we can have emergency plans ready for you if that time arises.

Please contact MaryAnn Simmons or Pastor Erin if you would like to be a part of this wonderful mission.

CHECK OUT OUR "WALL WORDS"

BY: LORINDA RAVO

In November we asked our Sunday School students what their favorite things about Fall are. Many of their responses will not surprise you as they are typical activities we ALL enjoy. Take a look at the corridor as you enter the church building from the parking lot entrance.

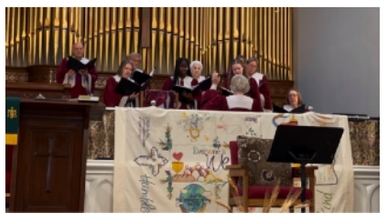

MUSIC NOTES

BY: LORINDA RAVO

In November, our music during the service will be:

Nov 1:	The Prayer-Sr. Choir
Nov 8:	Peace of Christ-FPCH Ringers
Nov 15:	Amazing Grace-Unity Chime Choir
Nov 22:	Michael, Row the Boat Ashore-Little Lights Choir Our Grateful Song-Sr. Choir HYMN FEST at Gethsemane Lutheran Church 7 pm
Nov 29:	Advent Alleluia-Sr. Choir

EYEGLASSES DONATIONS REQUESTED

The Deacons made our first delivery of 78 pairs of donated eyeglasses, prescription and non-prescription sunglasses, cheaters, and even some contact lenses to Vision Associates of Hackettstown. Thanks for your donations, and even if you didn't get a chance to bring in your old glasses, this will be an ongoing mission, and the collection box, created by Audrey and Violet is still in the front of the church sanctuary for any and all donations!

LOOKING FOR EMERGENCY NOTIFICATIONS? YOU CAN SIGN UP

During our VERY snowy/icy winter last year, we had a number of emergency closings for our Sunday worship services. To be sure that everyone gets the information they need, we are creating a list for people who do not use the church's social media pages: facebook, Instagram, or the website. If you would like a text message, email, or phone call, there is a sign up sheet on the information table in the sanctuary, or you can call the church office at 908-852-4011 and Pattie will take care of your request.

IT'S NOT TOO LATE...

BY: LORINDA RAVO

If you have been thinking about being a part of any of our music ensembles here at FPCH - Senior Choir, FPCH Ringers (adult chimes), Joyful Noise Bells (for kids in grades K-3), or Unity Chimes (for kids in grades 3 and up) - please be sure to speak with Lorinda for more information. People are welcome to come in and give it a try at any time throughout the year. Adult Choir and Ringers meet each Thursday evening for rehearsal, and the music ensembles for the younger kids meet each Sunday after worship.

FPCH CELEBRATES SPECIAL DAYS IN NOVEMBER

BY: LORINDA RAVO

Thankfulness is probably what comes quickly to mind when we think about November, but there are other special days that we will be recognizing here at church during the month.

On Sunday, November 1, we'll be observing All Saints Day, and we invite you to bring along a photo or two of your loved ones who are now joined with the saints in heaven. If your photos are framed, that's great, and if not, we'll have some frames and a bulletin board to help display the pictures.

On Sunday, November 8, we'll be honoring those in our congregation who have served in any and all branches of the military with a special display on the Communion table.

On Sunday, November 22, our Communion table will be decorated as a harvest table, and we'd love to have your donations of canned/boxed goods for our pantry. If everyone coming to church that day can bring one or more food items, we'll have shelves set up and you can add your donations there!

Finally, on Sunday, November 29, we'll share in the joy of the first Sunday of Advent with our traditional decorating of the Chrismon tree during the service. We hope you'll plan to be at church that day to be part of this beloved tradition at FPCH.

We hope you enjoy these wonderful and time-honored celebrations at First Presbyterian Church of Hackettstown.

Sharing God's Bounty

Can I Be Trusted with Much?

Oswald Chambers wrote, "Not every man can carry a full cup. Sudden elevation frequently leads to pride and a fall. The most exciting test of all to survive is prosperity." This quote provides a clear warning: Those who become prosperous are also very likely to become filled with pride. Pride can cause inflated egos and self-worthiness. Agur, a writer of proverbs, gave us this warning: ". . . give me neither poverty nor riches but give me only my daily bread. Otherwise, I may have too much and disown you and say, 'Who is the Lord?' or I may become poor and steal and so dishonor the name of my God" (Proverbs 30:8-9). When our bills are paid and we have money in the bank, we may feel secure and depend only on ourselves. In speaking about the curse of success, someone once said, "Ninety-nine people out of 100 can handle adversity whereas only one out of 100 can handle prosperity." The wealth that many seek can be more of a curse than a blessing.

God blesses us with work and the ability to earn our incomes. Unfortunately, we may foolishly begin to believe that we are solely responsible for the success we've achieved. As Moses wrote, "You may say to yourself, 'My power and the strength of my hands have produced this wealth for me.' But remember the Lord your God, for it is he who gives you the ability to produce wealth . . ." (Deuteronomy 8:18). We should understand that only by God's grace are we able to have a place to call home, a savings account, and a retirement plan. God's Word is clear that we are managers, not owners. "The earth is the Lord's and everything in it, the world, and all who live in it" (Psalm 24:1).

Even though it is difficult to pass the test with money, the Holy Spirit, working through the Word, enables us to understand that all we are and have are gifts from God. Joseph provides us a good example of stewardship. Separated from his home and family, he still trusted God and feared him, refusing to give in to the temptations that came with the position God enabled him to fill. As second in command in Egypt, one of the most powerful kingdoms of his day, he retained his humility, realizing that he was only the manager of Egypt's resources. But he managed those resources well, working at it "with all [his] heart, as working for the Lord, not for men" (Colossians 3:23). Just as God empowered Joseph in his stewardship, so he does for us today, whether our resources are vast, as were Joseph's, or small.

G.R.O.W. TEAM NEWS

SOMETHING TO PONDER

Please understand that I personally am not a "finance" person, but having been exposed over 5-10 years to church finances, here are some random observations that might prove helpful as we approach the upcoming year:

- FPCH runs a very tight ship and controls expenses wherever and whenever something is in our control. It is really amazing to see tight budget adherence in action.
  BUT
- Many things are not in our control: think utilities, insurance costs, snowstorms requiring plowing and so forth
  AND
- Since 2018 congregational donations have increased 3.7 to 4% and that is great news!
  AND
- Other donations from fundraisers, groups using our chapel, Heaven Sent proportion of expenses, and so forth have also increased by about 14%
  BUT
- Over that same period of time, expenses have increased 31.9%. YIKES!
  SO
- FPCH regular income only covers about 86% of our expenses forcing us to dip into our Endowment each year just to keep the doors open which is not a healthy or sustainable proposition

For those who prefer a visual, here is one attempt:

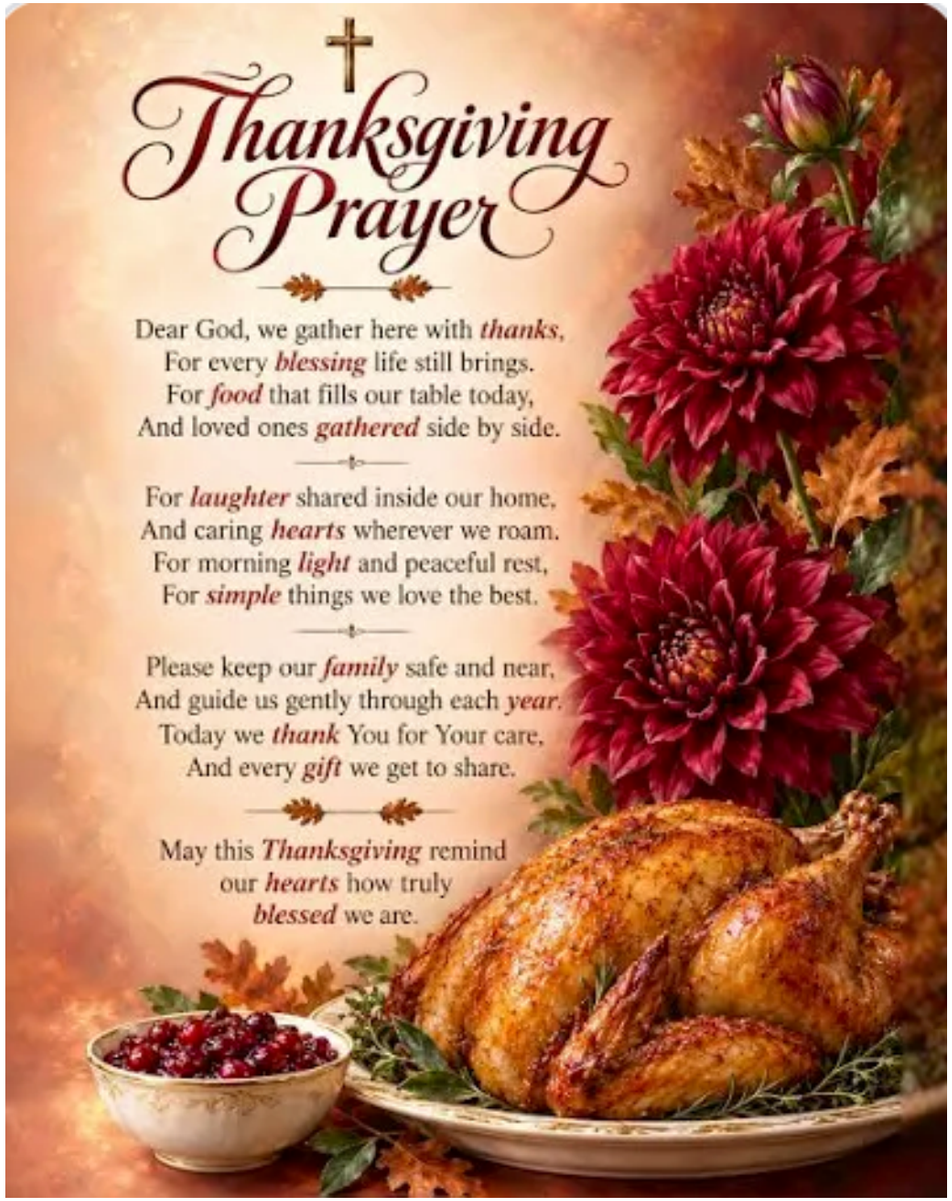

OPERATING EXPENSES (100%)

CONGREGATION GIVING (86%)	OTHER INCOME (12.5%)	GAP (12.5%)

* Estimated to be about $30,000 annually

This is a very generous and caring organization that has always risen to support the FPCH mission for our congregation and our region. As we share more stories over the upcoming months about the great work done here, let us continue to be thoughtful and prayerful about how to support this unique and loving congregation. More to follow!
