

DO WE DARE?

For "doctrine, reproof, correction, and instruction in righteousness" (2 Timothy 3:16)

*"Lord, if you are doing that, bid me to come and do that too.
I want to do it because I saw Jesus do it. I want to do it because I want to be like Him."*

Do we dare to yield ourselves to the wind of the Holy Spirit to carry us where we know not?
Do we dare to do go after the greatness and almightiness of the power of God in our lives?
Do we dare to reach out our hands to others in faith?
Do we dare to speak the Word of God and decree the promises for us and others?
Do we dare to trust in the words of Jesus that "He that believes on Me, the works that I do shall he do also."
Do we dare to do it first?

A Prayer and a Promise

"Thank you, Heavenly Father, for bringing the Church to the threshold of this great event of the Day of Jehovah Tsaba (Isaiah 2:12).

Thank you Father, for loving us so much to remove the burden and yoke and bondage off of the Body of Christ that societies have put on us...the bondage and weight of debt-ridden societies that cannot but hold its victims in destitution, wherein they themselves have lost control and there is no way out except that You deliver us out and bring us out of the destitution of this slavery of labor-driven lives to a place of product driven lives, doing because it needs to be done, working because it is a noble thing to do, rather than working to live.

You said that we might labor that we might have to give to any in need, but we labor to live instead. You will bring us out and deliver us out and bring us out and into a wealthy place (Psalms 66:12), a place where there will be no accounting of the wealth, as You did with Joseph (Genesis 41:49).

We receive the unlimited character and nature of Your ability in us. We receive the power for it.

No one has ever seen what You will do in this time, and just like You, Jesus, did greater than Elijah, we too will do greater than You did."

Do we dare?
