

WAYS TO RECEIVE HEALING

In the pursuit of learning about Bible truths about physical health and wholeness, with the end goal only to be healed, remain healed and to share these truths with others, a person must first determine, and be established in, the fact that it is always God’s will for man to be whole and healed.

If this truth is not rooted and grounded in the hearts as believers, we will have the opportunities to doubt, waiver, wondering and linger about in our receiving the manifestation of physical health and wholeness. Jesus paid a great price for healing, through His death and resurrection. It is His will, and it cannot be changed.

Jesus told the leper in Matthew 8, “I will,” in response to the leper’s statement, “If you are willing, you can heal me.” Because Jesus is the expressed person of the Godhead, having come to earth, not to only save man from their sins but to show mankind the heart and character of God, what Jesus says, goes! What Jesus says is the truth!

The methods to receive healing are varied, perhaps primarily at the decision of the receiver. All the methods require the Word of God and faith in it, so one is not more “special” than another, even though perhaps there is way better for one than another.

According to James 5:14-15, healing comes by the prayer of faith, coupled with the anointing of oil.

According to Mark 16:18, healing comes by the laying on of hands, through the law of transmission and contact.

According to Acts 19:11-12, healing comes by a healing handkerchief (a piece of cloth) placed upon the sick.

According to Isaiah 53:3-5, Matthew 8:17 or 1 Peter 2:24, healing comes by believing and speaking God’s Word, without anyone praying, but by just acting on these verses.

Once healed, a person then can witness to others how they can receive healing, because healing belongs to everyone. That’s what Jesus said, and what Jesus says goes!
