

AVIAN Trust Awards 2025

Honoring Excellence in Agriculture, Life Sciences, Biosciences, Environment, Education, startups and Industries

AVIAN Trust, founded by a dedicated group of naturalists and environmentalists, is committed to strengthening human resource capacity in agriculture, nature conservation, education, and safe pest management practices. One of its key objectives is to recognize and reward outstanding contributions across these vital domains.

Over the past three years (2022, 2023, and 2024), AVIAN Trust has honored deserving individuals with awards and certificates, promoting a deeper commitment to biological sciences among students, researchers, educators, and professionals.

We are delighted to announce that the next AVIAN Trust Awards Ceremony will be held on 14th December 2025 in Bangalore (venue will be announced later). Join us in celebrating the changemakers shaping a sustainable and innovative future.
