

Code of Conduct and Ethics

We are pleased you have chosen Nurses with Purpose for your humanitarian experience. Our foundation is built on trust, professionalism, and keeping the dignity and respect for all staff members and patients. The code of conduct not only protects our partners but protects you during your time with us.

1. I will respect our partners, our nurse team leaders, directors, and more importantly patients
2. If I have any concern and/or problems with anyone or any situation, I will consult with a director in a private manner.
3. I will adhere to the dress code and not have flashy jewelry, cell phones, heavy makeup or wear anything of value while volunteering.
4. I will not give money or gifts to staff and/or children unless approved by NWP
5. I will not wander off alone from the team unless I am accompanied with someone (team buddy) and have notified the Nurse Team Leads and/or Directors
6. In regards of alcohol consumption, I will not become belligerent, or inappropriate, if so, I will be counseled and/or sent home at my expense
7. Bullying will not be tolerated. Respect everyone. This experience will not be interrupted by others.
8. I will not possess or consume illegal drugs.
9. I will not be trusting with locals during the trip and understand that ill intentions could be used towards me.
10. I will be discrete during money exchange and keep my possessions close and secured.
11. I am aware that outside events, parties, or clubs are not on the Nurses with Purpose itinerary. If I choose to attend any non NWP related events and/or outings, it is at my own free will.
12. I am aware that local stores close early due to safety concerns in the Johannesburg area.
13. I am aware that NWP does not discriminate against any race, religion or sexual orientation.

All the above are to keep each team member safe. If any are violated, you will be escorted off the premises by security and expelled from the team. All expenses incurred for your return home will be at your own cost.
