

KNW NEWSLETTER

JULY 2024

2024 World Championships

Team KNW athletes had a fantastic competition at 2024 World Ninja League World Championships and we are very proud of all their efforts and accomplishments!

Athletes representing Team KNW on the Stage 1 obstacle course and 3 skill discipline courses were:

6-8 year old Kids Female: Blakely Lathroum
6-8 year old Kids Male: Jack Williams & Luca Glanzel
9-10 year old Mature Kids Female: Ruth Storch & Erin Kennedy
9-10 year old Mature Kids Male: Parks Kelleher
11-12 year old Preteen Male: Brendan McGonigal
13-14 year Teen Female: Norah Justis
13-14 year old Teen Male: Logan Weber
15-17 year old Young Adult Female: Hannah Parayil & RJ Cadd
Elite Male: Daroch Wilmoth
40+ year old Masters Female: Sandy Sanders
40+ year old Masters Male: Lee Buxbaum

Athletes representing Team KNW advancing to the Stage 2 obstacle course were:

6-8 year old Kids Male: Ian Wiesner
15-17 year old Young Adult Female: Becca Tittel
Elite Male: Liam Wilmoth

Athletes representing Team KNW advancing to the Stage 3 obstacle course were:

9-10 year old Mature Kids Female: Amy MacCalman
9-10 year old Mature Kids Male: Jack Barton
11-12 year old Preteen Male: Ryan Wilmoth
13-14 year old Teen Female: Taylor Malloy
15-17 year old Young Adult Male: Weston Justis
40+ year old Masters Male: Scott Morrison

The Wilmoth family was honored to be awarded the Nagano Sportsmanship Award for their charity, Afterburn, which supports the competitive efforts of financially challenged ninja warrior athletes!

Top 10 Placements:

Ryan Wilmoth:

5th Strongest Ninja

1st Stage 1

1st Stage 2

Becca Tittel:

10th Tech Discipline

Scott Morrison:

6th Strongest Ninja

4th Tech Discipline