

Flagship Trivia

August 3-6, 2015

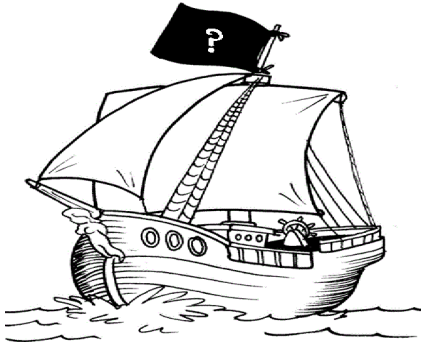

Flagship Trivia

Thank you for coming!
Next Week Advance:

Advance Question: Is Telnet a US. and Russian-jointly owned and operated satellite, a computer session layer protocol or a chat line for lonely NBA basketball players?

Advance Answer: Etta Kett

www.facebook.com/flagshiptrivia

Flagship Trivia

How it Works

- 1. Assemble your team and choose a team name.
- 2. There will be seven rounds of ten questions each.
- 3. Write your team name and your answers on the answer sheets.
- 4. Please do not use electrical devices without prior papal dispensation.
- 5. Heckling is encouraged. Trash talk is rewarded!
- 6. Remember to tip your servers!

Flagship Trivia 1

1. What do you raise when you're giving a toast?
2. Was the movie "Shane" a live-action western or an animated comedy?
3. If an insect breaks half of its legs, how many casts would it need?
4. When planting seeds, are you reaping, sowing, or re-soaping?
5. Someone who overacts is often referred to as what salty meat?

Flagship Trivia

1

6. What part of wheat is also called the awn – the beard, the mustache or the goatee?
7. Who created movie villain Freddy Krueger?
8. Has Jimmy Hoffa's body been found?
9. How do you make a lap – spit on a stair, sit on a chair or hit on a bear?
10. How many words are in the first sentence of the Lord's Prayer (Our Father)?

Flagship Trivia

2

1. What major Christian denomination's world headquarters is in Salt Lake City, Utah?
2. What do the initials RDA on your cereal box stand for?
3. How many movies make up the Back to the Future trilogy?
4. Back before TV went digital, poor reception would often be called what type of precipitation?
5. Was a pterodactyl most commonly a carnivore or herbivore?

Flagship Trivia

2

6. In which family of instruments does the flute belong – brass, woodwind or percussion?
7. What was Samuel Clemons nom de plume?
8. Is actor Gene Wilder alive or dead?
9. What prominent technical institution is located just a mile away from Harvard University?
10. What company produced the 1965 family film, “That Darn Cat”?

Flagship Trivia

3

1. Who wrote Moby Dick?
2. Which came first – the Model A or the Model T?
3. Sprechen sie Deutsch?
4. Jesse Ventura served as governor of what upper Midwest state?
5. Which is used as a steadying rope: a high-wire, a guy-wire or a fly-wire?

Flagship Trivia

3

6. Which has teeth – the ratchet or the pawl?
7. If you add the square root of 16 to the square root of 9, you get the square root of what number?
8. If you still have your spleen (most of us do), is yours part of your body's immune, digestive or nervous system?
9. What is the first name of bandleader and clarinetist Shaw?
10. True or False: Before he became governor of Kansas, Alf Landon played a cuddly alien on the TV sitcom "Alf".

Flagship Trivia

4

1. He was such a good boy until he got famous. Then this singer was arrested in 2014 on suspicion of DUI, and later that year, charged with vandalism after allegedly egging his neighbor's home.
2. She was a cutie on Nickelodeon's "All That" and "The Amanda Show", but in her early adult years, she spent six months in rehab, and by 2014, had been arrested twice for DUI.
3. His self-titled debut album, and his second album "Aaron's Party (Come and Get It)" were big hits. Him, not such a big hit with Texas lawmen when he was caught with marijuana in his possession.
4. This "Even Stevens" star caught a streak of bad-boyishness when he was charged with numerous counts after disrupting a performance of Cabaret on Broadway.
5. Her childhood goes way back to the 1980's. She seems stable now, but for awhile, she was a naughty one – smoking at age 9, drinking at 11, and doing cocaine before she turned 13, recounting it all in her 1990 biography "Little Girl Lost".

Flagship Trivia

4

6. Perhaps one of Hollywood's best-known crash-and-burns, this child actor lit up the silver screen as Kevin in the Home Alone films.
7. One half of what became known as "The Two Coreys", this Corey died of an apparent drug overdose in March of 2010.
8. Diff'rent Strokes for Diff'rent Folks, indeed. She grew up (sort of) and tried to rob a video store at gunpoint. She was arrested for trying to fill a forged prescription for Valium, and died in 1999 after overdosing on Vanadom and Vicodin.
9. The Parent Trap star who fell into a bad girl trap. She has been to rehab six times, was arrested for drunk driving twice, and has been arrested for cocaine possession.
10. Little person, big problems. THIS Diff-arent Strokes star was charged with assault after punching a bus driver in 1998. And two years later, another arrest, this time for domestic violence. He died in 2012 of a brain hemorrhage.

Flagship Trivia

5

1. In which TV show did a sign on the back of a bus read, “Caution, Nervous Mother Driving”?
2. If someone intends to snick-or-snee you, what is he or she trying to do to you?
3. What is XXX times X – answer in Roman numerals please.
4. What does a yegg crack open?
5. What is the first letter in the correct spelling of the prehistoric creature whose name sounds like terra dactyl?

Flagship Trivia

5

6. What is a cassowary?
7. Who, in 1963, was the first Ronald McDonald?
8. In what country is Monte Carlo?
9. What is the chemical symbol for Phosphorous?
10. Yesterday, love was such an easy game to play.
What part of speech is the word “yesterday” in that sentence?

Flagship Trivia

6

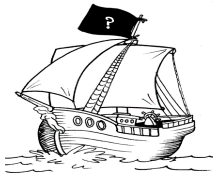

1. Who won the very first Best Actor Academy Award, in 1927?
2. What does the symbol CU stand for on the Periodic Table?
3. What Tennyson poem begins with the line, “Sunset and evening star, and one clear call for me!”?
4. Ameslan is another word for what language?
5. What are lantana?

Flagship Trivia

6

6. What were the names of President Lincoln's four boys?
7. If you sailed due east from New York City, what would be the first European country you'd hit?
8. "Théorie de la lune" deals with the study of what?
9. Who, according to the text, wrote the Bible's Book of Revelation?
10. How many cubits are in a yard?

Flagship Trivia

7

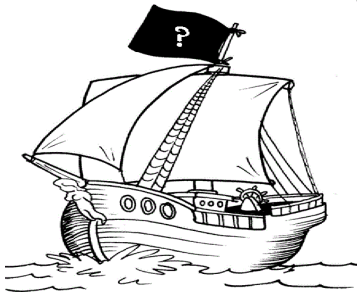

1. In what country is the Cairngorn mountain range?
2. Who wrote the short story, “For Esme – with Love and Squalor”?
3. What future president was aboard PT-109 when it was attacked by Japanese forces in August of 1943?
4. “Ladies and Gentlemen, rock and roll,” were the first words spoken on what cable TV channel?
5. The unmanned U.S. Probe Ranger 7 took pictures of what heavenly body?

Flagship Trivia

7

6. The title character of what Shakespeare play utters, “A seventh! I’ll see no more.”
7. How many events make up a heptathlon?
8. What was Ashley Montagu’s principle field of study?
9. In what city did Charles Whitman kill 14 people from a watchtower in 1966?
10. What was Verdi’s last opera?

Flagship Trivia

Thank you for coming!
Next Week Advance:

Advance Question: Is Telnet a US. and Russian-jointly owned and operated satellite, a computer session layer protocol or a chat line for lonely NBA basketball players?

Advance Answer: Etta Kett

www.facebook.com/flagshiptrivia