Introduction

“Three dozen medical experts who believe President Donald Trump is “mentally unfit” have expounded “a letter outlining their concerns” which has been submitted to the congressional record:

“STATEMENT FROM MEDICAL PROFESSIONALS”

Mr. WHITEHOUSE. Mr. President,

I. ask unanimous consent to have printed in the RECORD the following statement from medical professionals and their names into the RECORD on behalf of myself and Senator REED.

There being no objection, the material was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

“MEDICAL CONCERNS ABOUT PRESIDENT DONALD J. TRUMP AND HIS FITNESS FOR OFFICE”

Donald Trump’s mental health: are health professionals’ media speculations ethical or dangerous?

“The 36 neurologists, psychiatrists and other mental health professionals said in the letter that they had seen “objectively observable” signs of serious medical concerns in Trump, including deterioration of cognitive function, grandiose and delusional beliefs, and severely impaired judgment and impulse control.

The letter concludes, “it is our expert opinion that Donald J. Trump is mentally unfit to be the President of the United States, and that steps to remove him from office must be undertaken with the greatest urgency, with vital responsibilities on the shoulders of those in positions of leadership.”

No one in the group examined Trump face to face, the letter said, nor is he a patient of anyone in the group. But the letter said the group has “closely followed his behavior and his statements over the past year.” (Oregon Live)

The Medical Professionals Report: President Trump “presents a clear and present danger to our country and to the world,”

The letter cited “significant loss of self-control” and “escalating violence that threatens national and global stability.”

“As Commander-in-Chief of our military — more than 5,000 nuclear warheads in inter-continental missile silos, on submarines, and in bombers around the world, are ready for launch solely upon his order,” the letter said, “and no one now has the authority to countermand his order.”

Rhode Island Sens. Sheldon Whitehouse and Jack Reed, both Democrats, submitted the letter into the congressional record (Oregon Live)

High Level White House Discussions on Nuclear War

This timely report of Trump's mental health coincides with the conduct of White House Discussions which are explicitly contemplating the Use of Nuclear Weapons Against Iran:

“It appears the US wants to escalate its military actions in the conflict with Iran. ... According to a recent claim by a former US congresswoman, President Donald Trump does not rule out the use of nuclear weapons.”

Marjorie Taylor Greene, a former Trump supporter who recently resigned from her Congress post, claims to have sources familiar with the matter within the highest ranks in Washington. Her informants reportedly told her that the possibility of a nuclear strike on Iran has been debated in recent strategic meetings, despite Trump constantly declaring “victory” over Tehran.” (Lucas Leiroz, Global Research, emphasis added)

Are they meeting in the Oval Office under the helm of “Make Nuclear Weapons Great Again” MNWGA?

Of relevance, another group of specialists at the Pentagon are discussing the use of nuclear weapons under the helm of Peter Hegseth, who believes that nuclear war is the avenue towards World Peace.

We are at a Dangerous Crossroads:

In the Post Cold War Era, the Threat of Nuclear War is on the Table.

See the historic interview of Felicity Arbuthnot with Nobel Peace Laureate Dr. Bernard Lown concerning the Armageddonists in the U.S. State Department.

Felicity Arbuthnot warned us on October 27, 2007, almost 19 years Ago of the Dangers of Nuclear War based on her interview with Nobel Laureate Dr. Bernard Lown

Would the US Administration Really Endanger the Entire Planet?

By Felicity Arbuthnot

Here is a story told to me by Dr. Bernard Lown, one of the co-founders of International Physicians for the Prevention of Nuclear War (IPPNW) during the Reagan era....

I met Bernard Lown in Paris. We sat in dappled Spring sun, at a pavement breakfast café – fresh squeezed orange, coffee, croissants:

“I came back two days ago and went to talk (at the State Department) of the concerns in Moscow. Afterwards, a senior official – a household name (he declined to divulge) walked me to the exit. As we neared the exit, he put his arm round my shoulders:

‘Don’t worry, Professor Lown, if there is a nuclear war, we will be the first ones to rise up and meet Jesus in the sky.’”

Lown, used to the vagaries of the unwell, responded: “Tell me, does anyone else in this building [State Department] feel as you do?”

Oh yes, many of us do.” (emphasis added)

The swathe of “household names”, from the Reagan era, are now in the Bush Administration and the American Enterprise Institute. [And in the Trump Administration which has renamed its Defense Department]

The Armageddonists are Back?

Should the above statement by Bernard Lown be taken seriously?

Under the Trump Administration. The answer is Yes.

Commanders Accused of Framing Iran War as Biblical Mandate, Jesus' 'Return'

More than 100 complaints were made by military officers between Monday and Tuesday, totaling over 200 in total across every installation.

- High Level Discussions at the White House on waging nuclear war against Iran.
- A 1.3 Trillion Nuclear Weapons Program slated to increase to 2 Trillion in 2030.
- A Nuclear Weapons Program at the Pentagon

Moreover:

Peter Hegseth, Secretary of the War Department is embedded in religious doctrine

"A complaint shared by an anonymous non-commissioned officer to the Military Religious Freedom Foundation (MRFF) claimed that non-commissioned officers were told that the Iran war is part of God's plan and that President Donald Trump was "anointed by Jesus to light the signal fire in Iran to cause Armageddon and mark his return to Earth," as originally reported by journalist Jonathan Larsen.

The accusations, which received no direct response from the Pentagon when inquired by Military.com, have drawn widespread attention—in part due to the Pentagon's open embrace of Christianity through monthly prayer services in addition to appearances and speaking engagements by Defense Secretary Pete Hegseth at Christian-themed events.

"If accurate, these outrageous statements—justifying a war based on interpretations of biblical prophecies, and informing troops that they are risking their lives to advance a specific religious vision—raises not only glaring Constitutional concerns, but potential violations of Department of Defense regulations regarding religious neutrality and breaches of professional obligations and standards expected of military leadership," the lawmakers wrote in their two-page letter shared with Military.com.

Complaint In Question: "He urged us to tell our troops that this was 'all part of God's divine plan' and he specifically referenced

Complaint in Question He urged us to tell our troops that this was an part of God's divine plan and he specifically referenced numerous citations out of the Book of Revelation referring to Armageddon and the imminent return of Jesus Christ," the NCO wrote in the email. "

He said that ‘President Trump has been anointed by Jesus to light the signal fire in Iran to cause Armageddon and mark his return to Earth.’” (Military.com)

Discussions at the White House on waging nuclear war against Iran.

According to Felicity Arbuthnot, Foreign policy lies prevail. The same neocons “are at it again.” “We must bomb Iran.” Preemptive nukes.

Reminder to the crusading Armageddonists
