

THE 6 POINTED STAR

Of pagan origin, the HEXAGRAM or 6 POINTED STAR has been used in Satanic worship since the days of Genesis. It was rebuked in Amos 5:26 and became known officially as Solomon's Seal after he married the daughter of Pharaoh, built an altar to Ashteroth and entered into Baal worship; Since then, usage has continued in Solomonite rituals of freemasonry. Long employed in magic and witchcraft, the six-pointed star has been used as the chief symbol of worship to false idols in human sacrificial rituals: "But ye have borne the tabernacle of your Moloch and Chiun your images, the star of your god, which ye made to yourselves." 1 Kings 11:7-8 "Then did Solomon build an high place for Chemosh, the abomination of Moab, in the hill that is before Jerusalem, and for Molech, the abomination of the children of Ammon. 8 And likewise did he for all his strange wives, which burnt incense and sacrificed unto their gods."

Also utilized by the Babylonians, Egyptians, Grecians, Druids, Shamans, Seers and Astrologers, the six pointed star has remained consistent in the art of mysticism. In more recent times, it has almost replaced the seven-branched candlestick, first given to the Hebrew Israelites as an everlasting covenant (the MENORAH has always been Yasharahla's symbol). Is the 666 seen in the six-pointed star a sign of things to come?

This idolatry was early learned by the Israelites from their Egyptian taskmasters; and so unwilling were they to abandon it, that Moses found it necessary strictly to forbid the worship of anything "that is in heaven above;" notwithstanding which we find the Jews repeatedly committing the sin which had been so expressly forbidden. Saturn was the star to whose worship they were more particularly addicted under the names of Moloch and Chiun, already mentioned in the passage quoted from Amos. The planet Saturn was worshipped under the names of Moloch, Malcom or Milcom by the Ammonites, the Canaanites, the Phœnicians, and the Carthaginians, and under that of Chiun by the Israelites in the desert. Saturn was worshipped among the Egyptians under the name of Raiphon, or, as it is called in the Septuagint, Remphan. St. Paul, quoting the passage of Amos, says, "ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch and the star of your god Remphan."

— AN ENCYCLOPEDIA OF FREEMASONRY, ALBERT G. MACKAY, 1916

Revelation 2:9 "I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan."

The so called Star of David, also called the Shield of David by those that practise Judaism (Jews who collectively rehearse principles they adopted from the Hebrew Israelites, and practice as a religion based on the Torah and Talmud), is recognized as a symbol of modern Jewry. In 1897 the First Zionist Congress chose it to represent the nation of Jewry worldwide. Zionism is simply an organization of so-called Jews whose goal is to create a nation for those who claim Jewish lineage. Identification with the 6 pointed star and modern day Jews is not ancient Israelite in origin, but instead started in medieval Jewish communities. But where did it originate and how was it chosen to represent the Jew-ish community?

"You will find that approximately 90% of people in the world today who call themselves Jews are actually Khazars, or as they like to be known, Ashkenazi Jews."

The so-called Jews of today are an ethno-religious group divided into the Ashkenazim and Sephardim. The vast majority are Ashkenazis, who descend primarily from a Turko-Mongol tribe known as the Khazars, adopting the Talmudic cult in the Middle Age. The Sephardim are mostly descended from Esau-Edom-Idumean lineage and other Mediterranean neophytes. They converted to the aforementioned practice of Judaism around 740 B.C., holding the balance of power between the "Christian" Byzantine Empire and the Muslim Caliphate.

The Khazar state saw its first influx of Jewish "immigrants" in 723 in a wave that continued to the early 10th century (944 AD). In 860, the Khazar Kagan (King) adopted monotheism instead of shamanism, and was hospitable to Muslim and Jewish scholars. In 861 King Bulan chose Judaism as his conversion, a result of outside influence due to the Khazarian kingdoms growing reputation of thievery, murder, and road bandits, for assuming the identities of those travelers they murdered, as a normal occupational practice and way of life. By extension, his entire khaganate became Jewish. It is important to mention that Khazaria was a multi-cultural state and tolerated Islam and Christianity to a great degree. It is the Arabs who are credited with first naming the hexagram "the Seal of Solomon", though Solomon's name was applied to several different magic seals (72 in all). The idea relates back to myths of Solomon having control over all jinns, spirits and demons. But how constructed the seal and how did it come into play?

To this day, the star is referred to by the so-called Jews as the "Magen David" and remains as the renowned sacred symbol of the Jewish faith. But religious authoritative have come forward to suggest it is really "Sat-kona", the symbol of Goloka, Goloka-yantra, the abode of Krsna." Before it appeared in the west, Sat-kona is said to have been at the heart of spirituality in India. The Sat-kona – the six pointed star with a hexagram within, (defining sacred space), is constructed by joining two perfect triangles – one pointing upward signifying "Purusa" and the other pointing downward signifying "Prakrit". It is claimed to be the oldest spiritual symbol known to the world. Those who practice the faith are adamant in their declaring you may not find "archaeological evidence to support this statement, however, from sastra, Vedic literature, the evidence is there." "In the oldest known Vedic literature, Sri Brahma-samhita [in that it has been attributed to Lord Brahma and composed shortly after creation], the Sat-kona is mentioned in a description of the supreme abode of Goloka, the abode of Krsna."

The 11th century marked the decline of the Khazar empire, mostly by conquers from the west by Rus (East Slavs; "Russian" for all intent and purposes) states and wars with tribes in eastern territories. During the reign of the Khagan King, it is said ancient Babylonian black arts was employed by occult oligarchs who served in his court, and this is how the symbol came into play.

Although the Khazarian Kingdom had adopted Judaism as their new way of life, the King and his inner circle of astute occultists, continued practicing Babylonian black-magic (also known as Secret Satanism). These hidden observances featured ceremonies of child sacrifice, after “bleeding them out”, the drinking of blood and cannibalism; today’s equivalent of taking ADRENOCHROME. These ceremonies were all based on the Baal worship of the antiquities, also known as “Worship of the Owl”. In order to fool the confederacy of nations led by Russia that were attentive to Khazaria’s criminal conduct, the Khazarian rulership melded their practices with Judaism, creating a secret Satanic-Hybrid religion, known as Babylonian Talmudism. Thus this amalgam was embraced as the national religion of Khazaria, and nurtured the same evil that Esau is known for today.

According to Gershom Sholem, a German-born Israeli philosopher and historian, widely regarded as the founder of the modern, academic study of Kabbalah, becoming the first Professor of Jewish Mysticism at Hebrew University of Jerusalem, the motive for the widespread use of the Star of David was a wish to imitate Christianity. During the Emancipation, the Jewish converts needed a symbol parallel to the cross, the universal symbol of Christianity. In particular, they wanted something to adorn the walls of the modern Jewish houses of worship that would be just as symbolic.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE TERMS FOR "JEW"

Strictly speaking, it is incorrect to call an ancient Israelite a "Jew" or to call a contemporary Jew an "Israelite" or a "Hebrew." The first Hebrews may not have been Jews at all, and contemporary Palestinians, by their own definition of the term "Palestinian," have to include Jews among their own people—although in choosing the name "Palestine" for their homeland, they have picked a name that originally signified the opposite: an enclave of foreigners. A "Zionist" in the strict sense is not an expansionist: the original "Zion" was only a single hill in preferred term is bene Yisrael, "children of Israel," or "Israelites." A similar usage of "Hebrew" is found in the stories of the interaction between Israelites and Philistines in I Samuel and the interaction of Abram (Abraham) with Canaanites and other non-Israelites in Gen. 14 (see Gen. 14:13, where the Greek translator renders the term 'Iuri by a word meaning "man of the yonder region"). Jonah, likewise, at sea with a crew of non-Israelites, refers to himself in their presence as a "Hebrew."

דִּתְּךָ 'Ēdôm, ed-ome'; or (fully) דִּתְּךָ 'Ēdôwm ; from H122; RED (see Genesis 25:25); Edom, the elder twin-brother of Jacob; hence the region (Idumaea) occupied by him:—Edom, Edomites, Idumea.

In 1743, Mayer Amschel Bauer, an Ashkenazi Jew, is born in Frankfurt Germany, the son of Moses Amschel Bauer, a money lender and the proprietor of a counting house. Above the entrance to his counting house, Moses Bauer places a sign – this sign is a red hexagram. Geometrically the sign is said to numerically translate to the number 666. After Moses Bauer’s death, Mayel Bauer returns to Frankfurt to take over his father’s business. Bauer coming into the understanding of the significance of the red hexagram, thus changes his name from Bauer to “Rothschild”. “Rot,” is German for “Red,” “Schild,” is German for “Sign”. Even better still, “Rothschild” speaks to the lineage of Esau-Edom; RED-CHILD.

The power and wealth of the House of Rothschild grew to such proportions that by 1900 it was estimated that they controlled half the wealth of the world."

– Des Griffin in his book "Descent Into Slavery?"

"Rothschild-controlled Barings Bank bankrolled the Chinese opium and "African" (really Hebrew Israelite) slave trades (Trans Atlantic Slave Trade). It financed the Louisiana Purchase. The House of Rothschild financed the Prussian War, the Crimean War and the British attempt to seize the Suez Canal from the French. Nathan Rothschild made a huge financial bet on Napoleon at the Battle of Waterloo, while also funding the Duke of Wellington's peninsular campaign against Napoleon. Both the Mexican War and the Civil War were gold mines for the family. The Rothschilds have a majority stake in nearly all the central banks in the world."

– Dean Henderson in his book "Big Oil & Their Bankers in the Persian Gulf"

"The combined wealth of the Rothschilds in 1998 was approximately $100 trillion."

The House of Rothschild was the moving force, both politically and financially, behind the original Zionist movement of Jews back to the land of Israel. The Rothschild's began the Zionist Movement in 1896, funded the agitation through 1948 to get Israel re-established back into the land, forcing the leaders of Israel to adopt the hexagram as their national symbol – and has owned the nations leadership ever since.

“The Balfour declaration, which declared England’s support of the creation of a Jewish homeland, was addressed to Lord Rothschild II. Lord Rothschild also received the documents of support from the League of Nations. After World War I Britain ruled Palestine, and the Rothschilds ruled Britain. Also, a bulk of unpaid debts to the Rothschilds by the failed Ottoman Empire gave the family more control over Palestine. Then came Hitler...”

Incidentally, the word “Holocaust” according to the etymology online dictionary means:

holocaust (n.)
mid-13c., "sacrifice by fire, burnt offering," from Old French holocauste (12c.), or directly from Late Latin holocaustum, from Greek holokauston "a thing wholly burnt," neuter of holokaustos "burned whole," from holos "whole" (from PIE root *sol- "whole, well-kept") + kaustos, verbal adjective of kaiein "to burn" (see caustic). Originally, a Bible word for "burnt offerings."

Is it hard to believe reports that suggest the German leader was the grandson of a Rothschild? Alois Hitler, father of Adolf Hitler is alleged to be the illegitimate son of Maria Anna Schicklgruber and Baron Rothschild.

What they won't tell you is it was Hitler who partnered with the Zionists to relocate 60,000 so-called Jews to Palestine before the 2nd World War.

"Who, being in the form of YAHAWAH thought it not robbery to be equal with YAHAWAH: 7 But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: 8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross."

Why the Six Pointed Star is not YASHARAHLA'S symbol...

For those taking on the challenge of reacquainting yourself with the Hebrew, I'm sure you've come across this meme on the left, or others like it all over the internet, explaining why the 6 pointed star is anything but pagan; claims of "It's the Star of David as the First and Last Letter of David's Name...", etc., accompanied by this explanation below:

The "six pointed star" is made up of two inverted superimposed paleo-Hebrew "daleths" (delets), the beginning and ending letter in King David's name.

The problem is Da-wad or Da-wa-da is spelt Dalath-Waw-Dalath = אָוָּא (In which I'm very familiar because it's my name)

So where's the Waw? Waw (וּ) means hook, pin, peg or nail.

Dalath (א) means door...so where's the hook?

Exodus 27:9-10 "And thou shalt make the court of the tabernacle: for the south side southward there shall be hangings for the court of fine twined linen of an hundred cubits long for one side: 10 And the twenty pillars thereof and their twenty sockets shall be of brass; the hooks to of the pillars and their fillets shall be of silver."

The tent ropes were attached to these hooks (pegs). The "Y" shape prevents the rope from slipping off the peg, holding the curtain that encloses the tabernacle.

In Genesis 1:1 "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth."

בראשית ברא אלהים את השמים ואת הארץ:

HA AHRATAZA WA AHTH SHAMAYAM HA AHTH AHLAHAYAM BARAAH BA RAASHYATH
בראשית ברא אלהים את השמים ואת הארץ: ??

Some translate this verse as:

"In the Heading/Beginning, Created The Gods, the Heavens and the Earth."

From my study, I believe it to be more consistent with:

"In the Heading/Beginning, The POWER(S); "the beginning and end" (ALAPH-THAWA), that created the Heavens and "the Son of man" (WAW; the link, nail, the hook, the peg that holds it all together), "the beginning and the end; the strength of the covenant" (ALAPH-THAWA), that created the Earth."

⚡ is not meant to be a conjunction, subordinate conjunction, definite or indefinite article, as those didn't exist when the Scriptures were being written. The ׀ is meant to connect the (2) ⚡ in the verse so that it reads as above. For the sake of keeping on topic, I'll digress by saying the ׀ is indicative of what bridges the the Heavens and(;WA(W) Earth; the connection between spiritual and earthly things; the Spirit connecting to the flesh – the conversation between both; the first and last man; The Alpha and Omega – the beginning and the end=The Alaph (ALEF) "Strength of" and Thawa (Tav) – "The Covenant"; the Mark, the Truth that will seal the Elect.

Isaiah 22:22-23

the house of David will I lay upon his shoulder; so he shall open, and none shall shut; and he shall shut, and none shall open. 23 And I will fasten him as a nail in a sure place; and he shall be for a glorious throne to his father's house."

Matthew 16:18-19 "And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter (who is King David returned), and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. 19 And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven."

John 1:1 "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God."

John 10:9 "I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture."

So then, where's the pin, nail, peg, that the doors are hinged on? Why is it missing?

The Waw represents YAHAWASHI who sits on the throne of King Dawada, like the Heavens sit on the Earth. Because the covenant blessing of the birthright given by HA MASHAYACH was removed from ESAU, those that say they are Jews and are not have no connection to YAHAWASHI (Again, I could expand but for the sake of this lesson, I digress). It makes complete and perfect sense this symbol would represent their rejection of HA MASHAYACH (as they were rejected), the Redeemer of the House of David which THE MOST HIGH YAHAWAH set up as the key to enter into His Kingdom. Besides, isn't YAHAWASHI the door?

I guess now is a better time than any to add that It is the Germanic Khazars who are responsible for the name of YAHAWAH being changed to Jah, Yah, Yahweh, Yehovah, and Jehovah in Masoretic texts from the Hebrew name for "God" to what is represented by the Tetragrammaton (YHVH/YHWH), usually pronounced as Yahweh. Another way of them attempting to cast spells or throw a hex on the masses and fool The Elect.

“But cursed be the deceiver, which hath in his flock a male, and voweth, and sacrificeth unto the Lord a corrupt thing: for I am a great King, saith the Lord POWER YAHAWAH of hosts, and my name is dreadful among the heathen”

Speaking of change:

MALACHI 1:14

“These imported [from Babylon] superstitions eventually led Jewish rabbis to call Saturn Shabbti, ‘the star of the Sabbath. [And] it was not until the first century of our era, when the planetary week had become an established institution, that the Jewish Sabbath seems always to have corresponded to Saturn’s Day [Saturday].”
Rest Days, p.244 by Hutton Webster

The truth of the matter is the 6 pointed star has made its way into every nation and found its way across every civilization:

SUMERIA

In the Vorderasiatisches Museum in Berlin are presented several cylinder seals, dated to c.2500 BCE, decorated with celestial symbols showing stars with six, seven, eight and more points. These stars appear there in an astrological context or in an astronomical context. Among them there is a circle surrounded by six triangles, which are like the Sat-kona.

ASSYRIA

A Sat-kona can be found on the 'Black Obelisk' of Shalamaneser III in Iraq. This obelisk was erected in the Assyrian city of Nimrud as a public monument in 825 BCE at a time of civil war. In one of the panels on the monument there is a six-pointed star with a hexagram above King Jehu's head.

Saturday Worship?-Amos 5:26(Here Amos sees a day in which Yasharahla would worship a “Star-God” that they would make for themselves. Chiun is the Hebrew word for Saturn. Stephen in Acts 7:43 quotes Amos but is translated as Remphan, Greek for Saturn.

JAPAN

The Kagome Crest can be found in some of Shinto oldest shrines in Japan dating back to the 5th Century BCE. At the Ise Grand Shrine that was built for the Imperial House of Japan, a symbol resembling the Sat-kona is carved on all the lamps along the approaches to the shrine.

GREECE

In the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York there is a Greek Terracotta Drinking Cup, which is dated to ca. 560 BCE. This cup shows Hercules fighting an Amazon. In the middle is a six-pointed star. Aside from the inner hexagram, the stylized composition imitates Sat-kona when lines are drawn between: arms, toes, heads and knees.

EGYPT

A Sat-kona was found on seals dating back to the 3rd Century BCE in Egypt as well as weights dating back to the 2nd Century BCE.

MEXICO

The Mayan citadel of Uxma in Mexico shows several examples that resemble the Sat-kona. It is believed by Mesoamerican scholars that these symbols represented the sun. Uxmal was built around 700 CE.

With a little research one can find images of Sat-kona almost everywhere and sometimes in the most unsuspecting places such as on the American one-dollar bill. There the symbol is placed above the American Eagle by aligning 12 stars in the shape of Sat-kona with a 13th star in the middle. This very much resembles the Sat-kona of the ancient Phaestos Disc.

Some other interesting places where Sat-kona has appeared are as follows: Fort Santiago in the Philippines [1592 CE], Quanzhou, China [920 CE], Sinca Veche, Romania [100 CE], Mongol coins [500CE], a Saxon spearhead [200 CE], a three cent coin, United States of America [1851 CE], Saint Peters Basilica, Rome [1500 CE], a Christian tomb in Wales [100 CE], Bakhchysaray Mosque [1500 CE], Akbar's Palace at Fatehpur Sikri [1500 CE], Samanid coin, Iran [800 CE], and a glass jar from Arabia [1000 CE].

I'll end off with an excerpt and remind YASHARAHLA to try all spirits and prove all things...

The Rothschilds have been Satanists for many generations. The Rothschilds are an important part of the history of the Seal of Solomon (also known as hexagram, Magen David, six-pointed star, Star of David.) The Seal of Solomon, the hexagram, was not considered a Jewish symbol before the Rothschilds began using it.<sup>9</sup> Throughout the Middle Ages the Seal of Solomon had been used by Arab Magicians, Cabalist Magicians, Druid witches and Satanists. One of the few ancient uses of the symbol was on the floor of a 1,200 year old Moslem Mosque found where Tel Aviv is today.<sup>10</sup> In the twelve century an Ashkenazic Jew Menahem ben Duji, who thought he was the Messiah, used the magical symbol.<sup>11</sup> Because the Rothschilds were Satanists they adopted this powerful magic symbol in 1822 for their coat- of-arms. The name they adopted for their family actually comes from the fact that in the 17th century Mayer Amschel Bauer began hanging out a red hexagram in front of their house to identify it. Mayer Amschel then decided to take the name red-schild (Rothschild in German) after the red Seal of Solomon that they used. Alice Bailey in A Treatise On White Magic, p. 412, claims that the Hierarchy has a special group which she calls "the financial group" „controlling all that can be converted into energy, and constituting a dictatorship over all modes of intercourse, commerce and exchange." According the Luciferian Alice Bailey, the "financial group" is the latest group directed by the Hierarchy. In 1836 Zevi Hirsch Kalischer approached Rothschild and proposed Rothschild buy all of Erez Israel. It took many years for the Rothschilds to finally create Israel. The Rothschilds have been a primary force behind the creation of Israel, and so it is appropriate that the nation carries their magical Seal of Solomon as the state logo.

THE MARK OF THE BEAST IS THE RFID MICROCHIP

The Greek for Six hundred threescore and six (666) is Chi-Xi-Stigma. Strong's Concordance gives "Stigma" the following definition: "to 'stick' ... a mark incised or punched (for recognition of ownership)" With the comparative translations like stick, incised, punched, and mark, Stigma is very close to the definition of Charagma, the Greek word for 'mark' in Revelation 13:16. CHARAGMA From the same as G5482; a scratch or etching, that is, stamp, (as a badge of servitude), or sculptured figure (statue): - graven, an imprinted mark. Charagma is the syringe that injects the RFID MICROCHIP. G5482 is CHARAX (pronounced khar'-ax) From "charasso" (to sharpen to a point; akin to G1125 through the idea of scratching); a stake, that is, (by implication) a palisade or rampart (military mound for circumvallation in a siege): - trench.

THE RFID MICROCHIP

THE MARK OF THE BEAST

Charax is the needle which the RFID MICROCHIP is injected. G1125 is GRAPHO; A primary verb; to "grave", especially to write; figuratively to describe: - describe, write (-ing, -ten). To write, with reference to the form of the letters, to delineate (or form) letters on a tablet, parchment, paper, or other material, to write, with reference to the contents of the writing, to express in written characters, to commit to writing (things not to be forgotten), write down, record, used of those things which stand written in the sacred books (of the OT), to write to one, i.e. by writing (in a written epistle) to give information, directions, to fill with writing, to draw up in writing, compose. Grapho is the data contained in the RFID MICROCHIP.
