A formal dinner complete with decorum and protocol is one way we can all come together as Masters/Dominants, slaves/submissives to enhance our journey and life path. Those who identify on the right side of the slash will learn the art of formal service from the perspective of serving a formal dinner. Those who identify on the left side of the slash will learn the art of accepting that service with protocol and the decorum expected of them. This formal dinner is designed to help enhance the mindset and set the stage for an amazing weekend immersed in our culture. You will learn what is expected protocol for this event as well as opportunities to practice before you attend the Formal Dinner later in the evening. At the conclusion of the class you will receive your armband that allows you entrance to the Dinner event. Your group has been abducted, and placed in a holding room. One hour to escape the room or you will become sex slaves (as appealing as this may sound-the idea is to ESCAPE the room!). There will be a series of puzzles and brain teasers that lead to the final door to freedom. There will be a “guard” in the room with you, they will not free you, but they will assist you if you cannot figure out the puzzles.

While the premise of an escape room is for it to be locked this will not be the case, players are able to leave the room if needed for any reason.

Sessions are open to all valid ticket holders at no additional charge
