

Speaking Out

A Conference for Self Advocates

Kim Sparling New Vision

Advocate of the Year

Memorial Award

1. BACKGROUND:

This memorial award was established in 2012 by Ron and Gwen Sparling, of London Ontario, in memory of their daughter, Kim Sparling. This award recognizes the outstanding efforts of a person who has shown strong advocacy work within their community by promoting inclusion and acceptance of all people, regardless of a person's abilities.

Kim was an active member of The New Vision Advocates, educator, presenter and a strong advocate for people with intellectual disabilities. Kim is well known across the province as a presenter, Community Living Ontario council member and an advocate for inclusion, acceptance and belonging of people with intellectual disabilities. Kim was also one of the founding members of the Speaking Out conference planning committee from 2006 – 2011.

2. WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

The Kim Sparling New Vision Advocate of the year award is presented annually to a person who has an intellectual disability and demonstrates hard work and dedication in advocating improving the lives of people with intellectual/developmental disabilities through:
