Welcome to The Queen Bee's Lane! 🐝 We're more than just a honeybee brand—we're a community dedicated to saving bees, healing people, and building legacies that last for generations.

Right now, we're thrilled to introduce our Legacy Engraved Brick Campaign! Starting at $125, you can leave a lasting mark in our beautiful garden pathways. Each personalized brick tells a story—whether it's in honor of a loved one on Memory Lane, a tribute to heroes on Veterans and Active Duty Lane, or a celebration of community around our FirePit Lane. And of course, The Queen Bee's Lane pays homage to incredible women in leadership, like Margaret Murray Washington, who pioneered Black beekeeping back in 1892.

But here's the buzz 🐝—the first 100 Legacy Brick Builders will be invited to an exclusive, private event at The Queen Bee's Lane! You'll enjoy delicious honey treats, and we've got a surprise guest appearance from a Top Chef you won't want to miss!

And that's not all—you'll also receive a 32oz jar of our signature Queen Bees Lane honey and a charming honeybee keychain, as a sweet reminder of the impact you've made.

Every brick supports our mission to educate youth, provide opportunities for veterans with PTSD, and empower young Black and Brown students in agriculture.

🌍 Join us today. Together, we're saving bees, supporting our community, and building a legacy that will be the buzz for generations to come!
