

efactory

efactory Entrepreneurship Intern Pilot Program - This program offers a unique chance to gain hands-on experience in a dynamic startup environment. As a paid intern, you'll have the opportunity to:

- Work on real-world projects alongside experienced entrepreneurs.
- Develop essential business skills such as marketing, finance and operations.
- Network with industry professionals and build valuable connections.
- Gain insights into the entrepreneurial journey and discover your own potential.
- Learn the Great Game of Business to help you in your future endeavors.

I believe you would be a valuable asset to this program! I encourage you to explore this opportunity further and consider applying. You can find more information and the application link here: <https://efactory.missouristate.edu/entrepreneurship-intern/>

Applications will be accepted through March 24.

Another big opportunity: The Community Engagement Intern Program (previously called Leaders in Community Service) provides area nonprofits with dedicated, Federal Work Study-funded student interns for one academic year. These students bring enthusiasm, fresh perspectives, and a genuine desire to learn leadership skills, and get paid through FWS.

Applications will be accepted through April.
