

The Alberta Obesity Society will not be holding its annual conference in May 2026. We appreciate the continued interest and support of our delegates, participants, partners, and community members, and we look forward to welcoming everyone back in May 2027 for another engaging and informative conference experience. Further details regarding the 2027 conference will be shared as they become available.