

233 Practice Interview Questions: Miss Edition

By Steven Roddy

I once judged a pageant where interview was held after the swimsuit and evening gown competition. Following interview one of the judges commented that they would have scored Miss “so and so” better in swimsuit if would they had known how sweet she was. At first I was appalled but then I thought that is just human nature...and in essence we all think the same thing to some degree.

The people whom we are fond of, we want to do well...regardless of how they perform. That is the reason why all mothers think that their daughter should win the pageant.

Now, I am not saying that this judge was right as they should be more objective and judge each category accordingly but what I am saying is that you NEED to win the judge over during interview if you want to win the pageant.

You NEED them to like you.

So, how do you do that? Preparation.

By practicing little by little, just like your teachers told you, with the most relevant, current pageant questions that you can find you will increase your confidence to the point where you can answer any question that the judges ask.

When your confidence is that high you will be relaxed...and when you are relaxed you can focus more on the judges and less on, “Oh my God please don’t ask me a question about current events!”

So I have compiled a list of 233 sample pageant interview questions to help you build the confidence required to win the title that you seek.
