

UTAH REPTILES AND AMPHIBIANS LIST

- Prohibited
  - Nonnative venomous snake or lizard that can cause substantial physical harm requiring medical treatment
  - Crocodylians
  - Columbia spotted frog
  - Relict leopard frog
  - Western or boreal toad
  - Arizona toad
  - Gila monster
  - Mojave (or Mohave) desert tortoise
  - USFWS threatened and endangered – Zero limit
    - EXEMPT:
      - federal permit or authorized activities (need COR or permit)
      - captive-bred eastern indigo snakes (no COR or permit needed)
- Noncontrolled Unlimited Take/Possess:
  - Bullfrog
  - Green frog
  - Baja California treefrog
  - Pacific treefrog
  - Red-eared slider or pond slider
  - Common snapping turtle
- Noncontrolled Expanded (25/day and possess 100 per species):
  - Sagebrush lizard
  - Side-blotched lizard
  - Plateau fence lizard
  - Western fence lizard
- Controlled Standard (3/day and possess 9 per species):
  - Boreal chorus frog
  - Canyon treefrog
  - Great Basin spadefoot
  - Great Plains toad
  - Mexican spadefoot
  - Northern leopard frog
  - Plains spadefoot
  - Red-spotted toad
  - Tiger salamander
  - Woodhouse's toad
  - Coachwhip
  - Common gartersnake
  - Desert horned lizard
  - Desert night lizard
  - Desert nightsnake

- Desert spiny lizard
- Eastern collared lizard
- North American racer
- Glossy snake
- Gopher snake
- Great Basin collared lizard
- Greater short-horned lizard
- Long-nosed leopard lizard
- Long-nosed snake
- Many-lined skink
- Northern rubber boa
- Ornate tree lizard
- Plateau striped whiptail
- Ring-necked snake
- Smith's black-headed snake
- Smooth green snake
- Striped whipsnake
- Terrestrial gartersnake
- Tiger whiptail
- Western groundsnake
- Western skink
- Controlled Limited (2/year and possess 4 per species):
  - Arizona mountain kingsnake
  - Black-necked gartersnake
  - California kingsnake
  - Common chuckwalla
  - Common lesser earless lizard
  - Desert iguana
  - Great Plains ratsnake
  - Long-tailed brush lizard
  - Sonoran lyre snake
  - Spotted leaf-nosed snake
  - Western banded gecko
  - Western milk snake
  - Western patch-nosed snake
  - Western threadsnake
  - Zebra-tailed lizard
- Native Venomous (limits on permit):
  - Western rattlesnake
  - Prairie rattlesnake
  - Mojave (or Mohave) rattlesnake
  - Sidewinder
  - Southwestern speckled rattlesnake

(Utah Admin Code R657-53)