Alan T. Sugiyama High School at South Lake offers a small, personalized learning environment dedicated to ensuring that our future leaders realize their full potential. We value youth culture and voice, and offer a family atmosphere that connects students with real world opportunities.

- Students who prefer a small, more personalized high school environment
- Students who are interested in credit acceleration
- Students who are interested in using their authentic voice to inspire others; acting and recording arts
- Students who are seeking mentorship in a classroom environment & Internship opportunities.
- Students who are committed to preparing themselves to access post-secondary possibilities, regardless of academic history
- A Family that Believes, Inspires, and Empowers Voice and Choice

The Alan T. Sugiyama High School at South Lake may be just right for you!

Location, Collaboration, Community...

Close Proximity to Cultural & Learning Environments

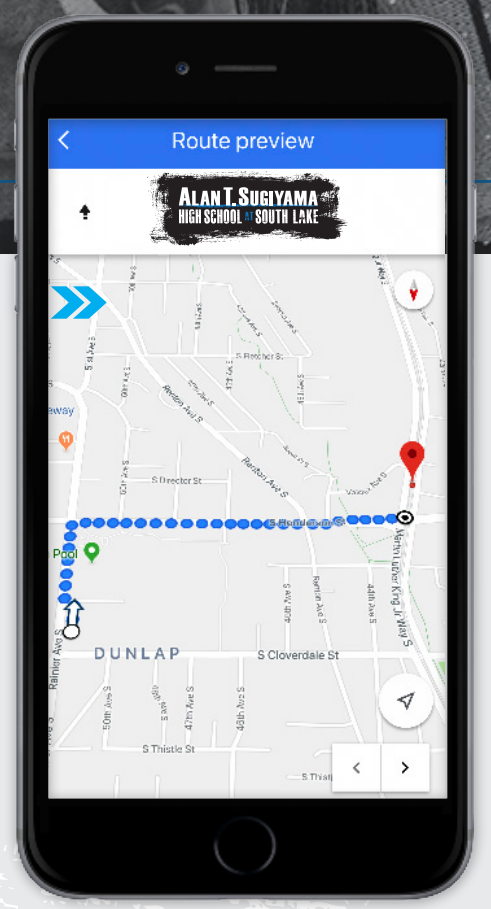

Paul Robeson Performing Arts Center. Located on the Campus of Rainier Beach High School. And Pritchard Island Beach.

Just 1 Minute walk to Rainier Beach Community Center and Pool

At ATS we have an obligation to provide students a lens to look beyond the diploma. Therefore, we must not simply conform, we must set the precedent and be Innovative”

- Dr. Joe Powell, Principal

A School as the Center of Community

The ATS High School at South Lake campus shares space with the South Shore K-8 School, Dunlap Elementary, Paul Robeson Performing Arts Center and the Rainier Beach Community Center and Pool. Steps away from a Seattle Public Library branch, and mere blocks from several outdoor learning environments, our community of learning includes Pritchard Island Beach, Beer Shiva Park, and a variety of local businesses that provide amenities in our neighborhood – all of which serve to support our students learning.
