Terms and Conditions

1. Whilst in their possession the User agrees to take every possible precaution to ensure the security and safety of the Device. This includes removal of the Device and accessories from the User's vehicle and storage into the provided packaging / case at all times when not in use to reduce the possibility of accidental damage and or theft of the Device. During travel to and from your destination we recommend that the Device be stored inside in the packaging supplied by Getting Places Safely
2. The User agrees to ensure that the Device is covered for total loss by means of the Users travel insurance or other insurance policies held by the User. In the event of loss or theft of the Device the User agrees to complete any procedures required by the Users insurance. In any case, in the event of damage or loss, the User agrees to remedy such loss, in full with the Supplier as detailed in paragraph 4.
3. The User agrees to safely return the Device to the Supplier in good working order within 3 days of the end of the Period of Hire. Should the Device not be returned within 3 days of the end of the Period of Hire the User agrees to pay a charge of an additional £1 per day for every day that exceeds the original Period of Hire. If the User fails to return the Device within 14 days after the expiry of the original Period of Hire the User agrees to purchase the Device and an invoice will be issued accordingly. No discount will be made against any payments previously made to hire the Device.
4. The User agrees to safely return the Device in good working order. Should the Device be returned faulty for reasons that would be defined as beyond normal wear and tear then the User agrees to either a. purchase the damaged Device for an amount equal to the current market value of new equivalent equipment and an invoice will be issued accordingly or b. to supply Getting Places Safely with the same or equivalent model within 14 days from the expiry date of the initial rental period. No discount will be made against any payments previously made to hire the Device.
5. In the case of GPS equipment all the Devices we supply are updated with the very latest maps available and with safety camera locations. You, the user, agree that you will not hold Getting Places Safely liable for any costs incurred or time lost that may be associated with use of the Device.
6. In the unlikely event that the Device suffers a technical breakdown rendering it unusable and providing that the Supplier considers that the breakdown is caused through normal wear and tear, the Supplier will authorise the purchase of a replacement Device from a retail establishment in your locality provided that you follow the required procedure as detailed in the customer information document supplied with the Device. You, the User agree to return both the faulty Device and the replacement Device together with the receipt / invoice for the replacement Device.
7. At your earliest convenience you, the User agree to inform the supplier of any changes to their physical address, email address and telephone numbers prior to taking delivery of the device. Failure to do so may result in a delay of, or non delivery of the device in which case Getting Places Safely accept no liability for any costs the User may incur as a result of said delay or non delivery.
