ABOUT ABOUT ABOUT ABOUT ABOUT ABOUT

The Cookie Jar Complot is a three-piece instrumental post- and math-rock band from Luxembourg. Since forming in 2021, the band has become a fixture of the country's independent live scene, combining intricate rhythms, memorable melodies and dynamic live performances.

The trio has appeared at many of Luxembourg's leading festivals and beyond, including Congés Annulés (four appearances), Out of the Crowd, CVLTFEST (Scunthorpe, UK) and Fête de la Musique Dudelange, and has shared the stage with artists such as Karnivool (AUS), Deafheaven (US), standards (US), Poly-Math (UK), Trupa Trupa (PL), A Burial at Sea (IRE), FES (UK) and The Guru Guru (BE). Along the way, The Cookie Jar Complot has grown from opening shows to headlining venues and attracting audiences in Luxembourg, Belgium, Germany and the United Kingdom.

In the past few years, the band has played more than 40 shows, including two UK tours, while building strong ties with the DIY post-rock and math-rock community across Europe. Online, their independently produced live sessions have amassed more than 20,000 views.

Drawing inspiration from bands such as And So I Watch You From Afar, Mutiny on the Bounty and Covet, The Cookie Jar Complot balances technical precision with melody, dynamics and atmosphere without losing sight of the energy of a live performance.

The Cookie Jar Complot consists of Gilles Glesener, Sven Schmeler and Philipp Colling, who have been writing and performing together since 2021.

Their debut EP, Lobster Knife Fight, was released digitally on 27 October 2023 and on vinyl on 10 November 2023. The band is currently working on new material while continuing to tour.
