

The Cookie Jar Complot

Band Press Kit

About

The Cookie Jar Complot is an instrumental Indie band from Luxembourg. Composed of the songwriting duo Sven Schmeler and Gilles Glesener, the band has been active since 2020 and is gearing up to play shows for the release of their EP in the winter of 2021. Their music is dynamic rhythms, post-rock soundscapes and intertwined guitar melodies. Drawing from a rich palette of influences, The Cookie Jar Complot also looked to other Luxembourgish acts to find their musical voices.

Both Gilles and Sven have played and written for multiple Luxembourg-based music acts. Teaming up for The Cookie Jar Complot, their aim was to create compelling instrumental music that you can dance to. For live performances, Sven and Gilles have enlisted Charel Baumann on bass and Miko Buraczyk on guitar.

What the press say...

“The group continues to amaze with cleverly arranged virtuosities, progressive themes, and perfectly structured segments.”

- Thoughts Words Action

"The instrumental track is nothing short if impressive as sonic waves wash over the listener, each one revealing more subtleties and intricacies that lie hidden within their music.”

- CLUNK Magazine

"The Cookie Jar Complot serve up chunky, chewy instrumental music that gets the blood pumping. The electric energy is overflowing and will easily find its way into moving your feet.”

- YACK! Magazine

“The chord progression and harmonic intuitions are very interesting in some moments even magical and hypnotic and the listener is entertained from start to finish.”

- Edgar Allan Poets

“It's one of those tracks that evolve right before you and ends up being one heck of a groovy whirlwind. Luxembourg surprised me with it's beauty when I visited in January of 2020 but now there's another reason why I love this place.”

- IT'S ALL INDIE

"The ultimate significant quality of the track is that with each listen, you can focus on another feature within the song; adding to the ‘story’ that the instrumentation builds and making us even more appreciative of Glesener and Schmeler’s songwriting skills.”
