TO OUR SUPPORTERS

Strategic Highlights

In 2023 (1444-45), Afghanistan-Pakistan Women's Economic Empowerment (APWEE) provided relief to disadvantaged women — including but not limited to widows, orphaned girls, disabled women, and divorced women, who have low to no income — and their families affected by the earthquake in Paktika, Afghanistan and its surrounding areas and floods in Baghlan, Afghanistan.

Additionally, this year, APWEE launched its job training program, conducting sewing and tailoring workshops and entrepreneurship and business development workshops and sponsoring midwifery training in Afghanistan and Pakistan, respectively.

Looking Ahead

With your support, APWEE will continue to respond to the humanitarian crisis in Afghanistan by providing emergency food assistance and disaster relief to disadvantaged women and their families. Additionally, we will continue our small business and STEM scholarship programs in Afghanistan and Pakistan, respectively.

With gratitude,

SMALL BUSINESS GRANTS

In 2023 (1444-45), APWEE issued 11 small business grants to women in Nangarhar, Afghanistan: Ten women received sewing machines, supplies, and solar panels to power the sewing machines; and one woman, who employs 25 women in her baby bed sheet factory, received raw materials.

Additionally, APWEE provided 19 female widows 25 chickens each in Laghman, Afghanistan and 40 low-income landless female farmworkers two goats and five chickens each in Sibi and Kachi, Balochistan, Pakistan.

JOB TRAINING

In 2023 (1444-45), APWEE setup a tailoring and sewing workshop for widows in Kabul, Afghanistan; trained dozens of women in tailoring and sewing and provided them with sewing machines, fabrics, and threads so that they can start businesses from their homes.

Additionally, APWEE conducted four entrepreneurship workshops in Sirikot Village, Haripur District, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, Pakistan and Mohra Phulgran, Bhara Kahu, and Kot Hathial, Islamabad, Pakistan for 44 Pakistani women and 45 female Afghan refugees.

Lastly, APWEE trained and certified six women from Balochistan in midwifery for the purpose of reducing maternal and infant mortality rates in Pakistan.
