

October Art Show in the Walburg Gallery: “Fresh Faces & Familiar Favorites”

The concept for Gallery Uptown’s October show in the Walburg Gallery started with a discussion around how terrific it would be to see a show that would be a combination of our newest members and the members with the most seniority. We made that a reality by hanging work from four artists who joined our gallery collective in 2020 alongside work by four artists who have been with the gallery for the greatest length of time.

The Gallery Uptown member artists featured in the “Fresh Faces & Familiar Favorites” show are:

The four newest members in 2020:

MAGGIE BANDSTRA – oil paintings in bright colors and bold composition

SUMMER OSBORN – a skilled photographer with a transcendent eye

JAN MCLAUGHLIN – colorful oil paintings of still life both realistic & abstract

TERESA GAUDINO – uniquely applied oil paint with a palette knife only

The four members with the most seniority in 2020:

LIZ LYSTRA – mixes multiple mediums to create abstracted scenes

JULIE HEGEDUS – known for watercolor paintings with eclectic subject matter

SUZANNE MOYNIHAN – master of mixed media, jewelry and constructions

CAROL SCHMIDT – works in oil pastels to sensitively tell stories of every day life

“Fresh Faces & Familiar Favorites” opens on September 30 and will hang until Saturday October 24.
