

Job Title

Mentor Organizer

Reports To

Works together with the Leadership Team of S.O.S. and reports to S.O.S. founder.

Job Overview

Coordinates and plan two social events in a year to bring mentors and young women together to make connections. The idea is based on the She Of Strength goal.

Responsibilities and Duties

Develop this new idea to find creative ways to bring both mentors and young women together in non-formal setting.

Finds innovative ways to advertise and attract women of all ages to see the benefits of attending social events.

Work with local organizations to develop and find sponsors for these events.

Recruit a team to fill in all aspects of putting these events together.

To emphasis that we do not screen mentors as this event is open to all who believe in the SOS mission and it is the responsibility of the individual to determine their future friendship.

Qualifications

- Ability to make connections within the community
- Comfortable with asking for funding
- Able to recruit and build a team
- Imaginative and able to create something that draws women of all ages
- Familiar with SOS mission
- Ability to communicate effectively with SOS leadership team
- Strong time management skills and ability to meet target timelines
- Awareness of positive messaging
- Team spirit

Compensation

She of Strength relies on volunteers because we are not an income earning organization therefore we have an inability to provide financial compensation. You will receive acknowledgement on our website which reaches an ever expanding audience. You will also receive real world experience to develop your CV and possibly discover your passion.

Overall Goal

She of Strength's goal is to make all young women conscious of their value, ability, knowledge, power, and perspective, while motivating all women to support them. We accomplish this by meeting two audiences. For Young women we give them information and show them that there are others out there and they are not alone. For other women we give them ideas and advise them on how to connect with Young Women. We also want to remind everyone how important it is that woman support each other.

Other