The rallies started shortly after the murder of George Floyd, when individuals in Baltimore wanted to do something and weren't sure how to direct their energy. The idea of monthly rallies was born!

We hold rallies once a month, usually on the third Sunday from 1:30 to 2:30, to keep alive the message that people in Baltimore are working towards an anti-racist society. Our rallies are also a way to bring people together who are engaged in anti-racism work. In addition, each month we participate in a "related action" which involves donations of supplies and/or funds to Baltimore City organizations and schools. We will also continue to educate ourselves on issues and take action as appropriate. We want to continue learning what other organizations are doing and support their efforts. Some of these organizations include: We Our Us, Baltimore Peace Movement and the ACLU.
