ARTICLE 1 – DEFINITION

1.01 – EMPLOYEES

Wherever herein the expression “employees, journeymen, help, or person” is used it shall mean the personnel in all production or distribution departments of the Company other than managers, supervisors in which is vested the right to hire and discharge any personnel, security, administration, sales, marketing, and hospitality.

1.02 – SUPERVISORY PERSONNEL

The Company will supply to the Union a list of all supervisory personnel whose duties are mainly supervisory but who may occasionally relieve an employee in the bargaining unit for a short period in emergency situations, or to train or demonstrate.

1.03 – PLURALITY

For ease of expression, use of the singular tense shall mean the same as the plural tense unless otherwise specifically stated.

ARTICLE 2 – BARGAINING AGENCY AND RECOGNITION

2.01 – MEMBERS IN GOOD STANDING

Only members in good standing with the Brewery, Winery, and Distillery Workers Union, Local 300 shall be employed in all production or distribution departments of the Company save those employee’s coming within the exceptions set forth in Article 1, Section 1, hereof

2.02 – PERMIT CARDS

- a) Should the Union at any time be unable to furnish competent help when requested by the Company, the Company shall be permitted to hire other employees temporarily on permit cards as long as such employment does not cause any lay off to the regular Union members.
- b) All such extra help must obtain a permit card from the Union before going to work.
- c) All newly hired shall be introduced to a Union representative. At the Company's convenience (within the date of hire), a Union representative shall be appointed and allotted a minimum of one (1) hour to orientate the newly hired, with regards to Union, safety, and Company policies. The appointed representative shall tour the newly hired throughout the plant and explain these policies to him/her.

2.03 – SEASONAL AND TEMPORARY EMPLOYEES

The Company agrees to follow the provisions of Article 2 when hiring personnel for seasonal or temporary assignments.

- a) Seasonal help may only be hired during the period April 1st to August 31st of each year.
- b) Temporary help may be hired for specific time frames and projects outside of the seasonal period after consultation with and agreement of the Union.
- c) It is further agreed that ticketed personnel (i.e. Trades) are exempt from this article.

- d) In the event that the Employer decides not to permanently layoff said seasonal help on or before August 31st of each year, those employees retained shall be placed on the seniority list, at full job rate, and further, all days worked shall accrue towards benefit status.
- e) It is mutually agreed and understood that this Article 2.03 does not apply to the Quality Assurance Department.

Employees hired to fill seasonal or temporary personnel requirements shall accrue seniority and be placed on a seasonal/casual list.

- f) Seasonal/casual workers will be removed from the seasonal/casual list under the following circumstances:

- i. Transferred to the regular seniority list through a vacancy.
- ii. Resignation
- iii. Termination for cause
- iv. Refusing or missing a call-in on two (2) consecutive occasions (employees are responsible to inform the Company as to how and where they can be reached for call-in purposes).

2.04 – PROBATIONARY PERIOD

Pursuant to the provisions of Article 2 hereof, when new persons are employed they shall:

- a) If a member of the Union, be deemed to be on a trial basis for the first thirty (30) days worked from the day he started with the Company. Such trial period will be for the purpose of determining the employee's suitability for employment. During such period, they shall be paid the job rate specified herein for the work they are doing.

- b) If not a member of the Union but skilled in the job category for which the new employee is employed, be deemed to be on a trial basis for the first sixty (60) days worked from the day they started with the Company. Such trial period shall be for the purpose of determining the employee's suitability for employment. During such period, they shall be paid the job rate specified herein for the work they are doing.
- c) If not a member of the Union and not skilled in the job category for which the employee is employed, be deemed to be on a trial basis for the first sixty (60) days worked from the day they started with the Company. Such trial period shall be for the purpose of determining the employee's suitability for employment. Such new employees shall be paid the permit card rate for the first sixty (60) days worked. They shall thereafter be paid the job rate in accordance with Article 5 of this agreement.
- d) During the probationary period the employee may be dismissed, provided the reasons for such dismissal are given to the Union in writing. The Company agrees, the employee is entitled to a fair and reasonable time to learn the job.

2.05 – MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

The union recognises the employer shall have the right to hire, direct, transfer, promote, demote, layoff, suspend or otherwise discipline or discharge an employee for just cause, subject to the right of the employee concerned to lodge a grievance in a manner prescribed within this collective agreement.

The union agrees that all employees shall be governed by all rules as adopted by the employer and published to employees on bulletin or notice boards, or by general distribution, provided such rules are not in conflict with this agreement.

2.06 – UNION ACTIVITY

- a) No employee shall be discriminated against for their activity as a Union member, or for serving on a committee or doing any other work in the interest of the Union. Members shall be granted the necessary time for such work without pay provided reasonable notice is given the Company and the time required is not unreasonable
- b) Employees shall not lose any regular pay for attending meetings approved by the Company
- c) The Company's liability with respect to the regular straight time wage costs of Union Negotiating Committee members for attending meetings with the Company for the purpose of negotiating the renewal of this Agreement will be limited to an amount no greater than the equivalent of seven (7) days' pay per member (at their regular rate), with a maximum of three (3) committee members from Prince George.
- d) The Company agrees to pay Union Representatives at straight time rate pay to attend meetings approved by the Company that are outside their normal working hours.
- e) Employees who are granted leave for Union business shall continue to receive pay for their regularly scheduled workday, and all benefits including pension contributions.
- f) The Company shall invoice the Union for all wages, benefit costs, pension contributions received by the employee during Union leave, and the Union agrees to reimburse the Company for same, within thirty (30) days from receipt of the invoice.

2.07 – UNION DUES

- a) The Company shall honour a written assignment of wages to the Union.
- b) An assignment pursuant to sub-section (a) shall be substantially in the following form:

“Until this authority is revoked by me in writing, I hereby authorize you to deduct from my wages and pay to the Union dues and uniformly applied assessments in the amounts following, provided any such uniformly applied assessments are payable by all members in the bargaining unit.”

- 1. Dues of $_____per_____.
- 2. Assessments of $_____per_____.

- c) Having received assignments as above from employees, the Company shall deduct from the pay of each employee covered by this Agreement a sum in the amount of the current monthly Union dues and assessments in accordance with (b) above. A written list of the employees’ names, the amounts and descriptions of the above Company to the Union financial secretary not later than the twelfth of the month following the month to which the deductions are applicable.
- d) The Union will notify the Company of the amount of the established dues and applicable assessments to be deducted and will further notify the Company thirty (30) days in advance of any changes with respect to the amount of dues and assessments to be deducted.
- e) If an assignment is revoked, the Company will give a copy of the revocation to the assignee.

- f) Notwithstanding any provisions contained to subsections (a), (b), and (c) hereof, there shall be no financial responsibility on the part of the Company for fees, dues, or assessments of any employee unless there are sufficient unpaid wages of that employee in the Company's hands to pay same.
- g) The Company agrees to report Union dues on the employees' T4 slips

2.08 - NO OTHER AGREEMENT

No employee covered by this Agreement shall, individually or collectively, be required or permitted to make a written or oral agreement with the employer or its representatives, which may conflict with the terms of this Agreement, or a statute of the Province of BC or Canada.

ARTICLE 3 – SENIORITY

3.01 – DEFINITION

- a) Except as outlined in Article 2.03, seniority is defined as the length of an employee's service with the Company, calculated as the elapsed time from the date they were first employed, unless their seniority was broken, in which event such calculation shall be from the date that they returned to work following the last break in their seniority.
- b) Employees with a common seniority date will be put on the seniority list in the order in which they were dispatched or as otherwise agreed to by the Union and the Company. Seniority service records shall not be considered broken by reason of:
 - 1. Absence on leave when granted mutually by the Company and the Union.

2. Absence due to seasonal lay off, providing the employee reports to work within seven (7) days after written notice to report has been sent by registered mail to their last address registered with the Company; provided that when an employee is recalled to work and does not report the Company may recall the next employee in line but they are subject to being displaced if the first employee does report within seven (7) days. The shop steward will be notified of the recall.
3. Sickness or injury
4. Active service in the Canadian Armed Forces during national emergencies.
5. Continuous lay off of less than twelve (12) months.

3.02 PROCEDURE REGARDING LAY OFFS

STEP 1

Should it become necessary to reduce the regular working force, all permit card help must be laid off before any Union members are laid off.

STEP 2

- a) When it becomes necessary to reduce a departmental work force, members shall be laid off in reverse order of their plant seniority from within that department provided the senior employee is willing and able to perform the required duties at the classified rate for the job.
- b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, it is understood and agreed that an employee who is being trained pursuant to the provisions of the posting system, and who are supernumerary to the department, are exempt from these layoff provisions.

- c) If any employee has a shift cancelled mid-week (after the revised schedule has been posted), due to lack of raw materials or packaging, and strictly as a result of an immediate supervisor not ordering the materials needed in a timely manner, the Employer shall contact the employee and arrange for alternate scheduling within a department required. This shall be done in order for the employee to obtain their original scheduled hours of work for that week. No other junior employees' work schedule shall be disrupted as a result of this accommodation. In the event that this happens, the affected employee shall be required to work where designated and shall not have the option of refusing the work.

Step 3

- a) Employees laid off from their department in accordance with Step 2 above, shall have the right to bump the most junior person in the plant whose job they are willing and capable to perform, subject to the following conditions:
 - i. The regular schedule will be posted as per Article 4.01 (c)
 - ii. It is the employee's responsibility to inform the supervisor involved of their desire to bump by 10:00 a.m. Friday of the preceding week.
 - iii. A revised schedule will be posted by 2:00 p.m. Friday listing those employees scheduled for work in the following week. The changes will be entered on Dayforce where the employee can access them after 2:00 p.m. on Friday.
 - iv. The final decision as to whether or not an employee is able to perform a job and can exercise their bumping rights shall be made by the Company
 - v. The Company reserves the right to train senior employees to enable them to exercise their bumping rights.

- b) Employees laid off shall receive their record of employment within forty-eight (48) hours or as soon as possible thereafter.
- c) With respect to layoffs, consideration will be given to effective scheduling and planning by the Company, the Union and the employees to allow employees to stabilize income resources, and all the Company to run efficiently. The Union and the Company agree to cooperate to allow the employees to stabilize income resources, including obtaining temporary employment outside the Brewery. Such employees must be available for recall. Employees are considered for this benefit. This Clause in no way compels the Company to operate in an inefficient manner or without sufficient and or qualified manpower.

3.03 – PROCEDURE REGARDING RECALL

- a) When staffs are augmented employees will be recalled in order of their plant seniority provided that the senior employee is willing and capable to perform the work required of them at the classified rate for the job.
- b) Employees shall be guaranteed a minimum of ten (10) hours between shifts. In the event their seniority is such that the Employer recalls them prior to the ten (10) hours elapsing, they shall be paid at the rate of double time from the commencement of their shift until the full ten (10) hours has elapsed between shifts. The Company shall not be permitted to recall employees out of seniority in order to circumvent this provision. This provision, however, shall not apply in the event it is bumping situation.
- c) Employees on layoff in Prince George shall ensure that they are available for recall on a daily basis between the hours of 6:00 a.m. and 9:00 a.m. In the event that it becomes necessary for the Company to recall employees outside of these hours, every effort shall be made to contact employees in accordance with subsection (a) above. However, employees who are not available outside of the hours stipulated above shall not be held blameworthy, nor shall they be permitted to grieve the loss of work. Recall employees who are unavailable for three (3) shifts in a two (2) week period, without having received prior approval from the Company to be absent when that is possible, may be subject to discipline up to and including termination.

3.04 – DAILY JOB VACANCY REPLACEMENT PROCEDURES

Subject to the efficient operation of the Company, when a job vacancy is created due to the absence of the scheduled employee, the following provisions will be used as a guideline to fill the vacancy:

1. Consideration will be given to employees who:
 - a) Are capable to do the work and,
 - b) Are scheduled in the department in which the vacancy exists and,
 - c) Are in the plant at the time the vacancy is to be filled and,
 - d) Have advised their supervisor (or Lead Hand) of their desire to do the job vacated.
 - e) Maintenance personnel and Lead Hands are exempt from above provisions, and shall not be expected to replace those vacancies, which arise.
2. From the employees who meet the criteria above, the job vacancy will be filled by:
 - a) The senior employees holding a posting in that department, otherwise;
 - b) The senior employee capable to do the job that is vacant.
3. No penalties or additional costs will be incurred by the Company in accommodating employees as per item number two (2) above.

4. To fill the job vacancy left by the employee selected in item number two (2) above, or if no suitable employee is capable to fill the vacancy, the vacancy will be filled by the next senior employee willing and capable to do the job required of them.
5. The preceding procedures do not restrict the Company in any way from not filling vacant positions of filling vacant positions on a temporary basis or changing employees' work assignments or changing production schedules in reacting to manpower shortages and production needs.

3.05 – SEVERANCE PAY

1. An employee shall be eligible for a separation as set forth below if on any date during their layoff the hours scheduled for them during the previous twelve (12) consecutive months were less than fifty percent (50%) of normal full-time hours.
2. Severance payments shall not be made:
 - a) To employees who are discharged for just cause.
 - b) To employees who have not completed their probation period.
 - c) In the event of closing due to Acts of God, public enemy, war, or disaster.
3. Severance pay shall be twelve hundred dollars ($1200.00) for each year of seniority (pro-rated for incomplete years).
4. Employees shall not be removed from the seniority list until the employee accepts their severance allowance.
5. In the event of a plant closure all employee benefits will be maintained for three (3) months.

3.06 – JOB POSTINGS – DEFINITIONS

- a) A permanent posting shall be the governing posting in the filling of job vacancies. Whenever possible, if an employee is working and their job posting is being performed, they will be scheduled to perform their posted job if they are the senior employee on shift holding that posted position. However, in the event of departmental layoff, the junior person in that department shall be laid off first and so on in that order. It is understood that said employees shall retain the right to bump into the junior position in other departments as far as their seniority permits.
- b) A relief posting shall be used when the Company perceives the need to cover vacant jobs created by time off, scheduling, sickness, increased workload or for reasons in which the employee holding the permanent posting will not be able to fill their position. The employee so trained will be expected to fill these positions when scheduled or directed.
- c) Relief Postings shall not be required between Engineering and Maintenance departments. All Engineers and Maintenance personnel can be positioned in either department, when needed; providing they meet the qualifications required and 3.06 (a) has been adhered to.

3.07 – POSTING PROCEDURE

1. NOTICE

- a) Whenever a job posting is required in any of the departments, the Company shall post a standard notice on the posting bulletin board for at least five (5) production days soliciting the names of employees who wish to apply to fill such posting.

- b) The standard notice on the bulletin board shall specify:
 - 1. The type of job posting (permanent or relief)
 - 2. The job available.
 - 3. The qualifications required.
 - 4. The rate of pay and wherever possible, an outline of the work required and the approximate conditions of temperature, humidity, and general environment to which the employee will be exposed.
 - 5. Where “any other duties delegated” is specified under the outline of work required. It is understood that any other duties delegated shall remain duties within the same department and with regards to the same process involved.
- c) Any Union employee covered by this Agreement may sign the job posting.
- d) The Company shall discuss with the Union Committee the particular job requirements of the posting and come to a mutual agreement as to what the above Article encompasses.

2. SELECTION

- a) In cases involving relief postings, the posting shall be filled, within reason, by the senior applicant.
- b) In cases involving permanent postings, the Company will select the most senior employee who suits the training requirement after consulting with the Union.

- c) In the event differences arise which cannot normally be settled, as to which of the applicants should be given a trial to fill the job posting, the matter shall, within three (3) days after the said differences arise, be dealt with under Article 13.03, Grievance Procedure, starting with STEP 3 thereof.
- d) Employees shall be permitted to hold one (1) permanent posting and one (1) relief posting at any one time.

3. TRAINING AND TRAIL PERIOD

- a) The person selected shall be given a reasonable training period to learn the job. The Company agrees to cooperate in determining a reasonable training period after consulting with the Union.
- b) Employees accepted for postings will have ten (10) working days, with a shift change, during which they have the right to turn down the posting and return to their former job.
 - (i) If an employee completes or partially completes training for a position and subsequently decides not to accept the position, the following shall apply:
 - a. The employee shall return to their prior position, without loss of seniority or pay.
 - b. The employee will be ineligible for a training opportunity for a period not to exceed one year.
 - c. Ineligibility shall not apply if:
 - i. Declined for health or unforeseen personal circumstances.
 - ii. The working conditions or terms of the new position differ from what was originally outlined.

- c) Upon completion of said training period, employees shall have thirty (30) production days to prove their suitability. In cases of unsuitability at any time during the trial period, the Company shall notify said employee and the department shop steward in writing.
- d) The person selected shall be transferred to the posted job within twenty (20) working days provided that there is a replacement available.
- e) An employee absent from work for not more than three (3) weeks will have the right to apply within five (5) days of their return to work, but this need not delay filling the job within the period.
- f) In the event of unsuitability, or the exercising of rights in 3.07, Clause 3(b), the selection process will start again with the same sign-up list that the original employee was selected from.
- g) Employees who, by reason of physical deficiency are required to transfer from their present job will retain their plant seniority.
In all cases where it is necessary to transfer an employee for the aforementioned reason, the Company and the Union will mutually decide on the job to which the employee will be transferred.
- h) Any employee who has had a time lapse of more than four (4) months in a particular job that they are trained in and is required to fill a vacancy in that job, shall be entitled to an uninterrupted retraining period to fill that requirement. The Union and the Company shall meet to determine the time period required to retain an employee on a case-by-case basis, exclusive to layoff procedures.

3.08 – SENIORITY RESPECTING OVERTIME

- a) In the event it is necessary to work unforeseen overtime, the employee performing that job will be asked first. Thereafter, the following selection process will apply to those employees who are able to perform the duties required in order of their plant seniority.

1. Employees working in the department.
 2. Employees working in the plant.
 3. Employees not on shift.
- b) In the event the Employer wishes to schedule overtime shifts on Saturdays, Sundays, or statutory holidays, employees who are able to do the work required will be asked, in order of their plant seniority in the following manner:
1. Employees who have not had the opportunity to work forty (40) hours in the week just ended due to layoff.
 2. Plant wide.
- c) Labour in the Packaging Department including, but not exclusively limited to, hand-packing, hand-labelling, bundling, re-coding, and stickering is hereby mutually agreed to require no posting or special training and can be performed by any union or permit card employee.

If overtime arises in the above job categories, the below steps shall be followed, in order, until the required number of overtime positions are filled. In each step, overtime shall be offered to employees in order of decreasing plant seniority.

1. Employees currently working in the plant shall be offered to work after their scheduled shift ends.
2. Employees scheduled to work on the next shift shall be called in to work early.
3. Employees laid off from work (except seasonal and temporary employees) shall be called in to work.
4. Employees who have completed a work shift earlier in the day and are no longer at the plant shall be called in to return to work.

5. Seasonal and temporary employees laid off from work shall be called in to work.

3.09 – TRANSFER OUTSIDE THE BARGAINING UNIT

If a Union member accepts employment with the Company in a classification outside the bargaining unit, he shall retain his seniority for a period not to exceed ninety (90) days from the date he accepts such employment.

ARTICLE 4 – HOURS OF WORK

4.01 – WORK WEEK

- a) For all employees, eight (8) hours shall constitute a day's work and five (5) days, namely forty (40) hours, Monday through Friday inclusive, shall constitute a week's work. An employee who is ordered to work less than eight (8) hours a day or forty (40) hours a week shall be considered temporarily laid off.
- b) Notwithstanding Section 4.01 (a) above, the Company shall have the right to schedule four (4) consecutive ten (10) hour shifts, Monday to Thursday or Tuesday to Friday, in any department, providing the majority of employees directly affected by this change have voted in favour of it.
- c) Notification of shift schedules will be given no later than 12:00 p.m. Thursday for work in the following week. Employees whose seniority is such that they are scheduled to work the entire week shall be assigned one (1) starting time for that week.

Where the Employer requires an employee to commence work prior to his posted starting time or work after his regular quitting time, but not in excess of their scheduled number of hours, such hours shall be paid at the applicable overtime rates for the first shift change, or any other changes thereafter.

Where the Employer requires an employee to change his shift (e.g. from days to afternoons) the employee shall be compensated at the rate of time and one-half for the first shift so worked.

- d) All regular shifts shall be eight (8) or ten (10) hours in duration and the employees shall be paid a minimum of eight (8) or ten (10) hours.
- e) When ten (10) hour or eight (8) hour shifts are scheduled, these shifts will be scheduled consecutively.
- f) Either ten (10) or eight (8) hour shifts will be scheduled weekly.
- g) Employees who receive permission to leave early or who agree to leave early because of a temporary reduced department workload shall be paid for the time worked only.
- h) Employees must be given twelve (12) hours prior notice to normal start time if they are not to report for work the next day. If they are not notified and report to work, they shall be paid for the whole day, excluding those absent without notification to the Employer on the day the notification not to report is given.
- i) However, in the event of any utilities failure or machine failure beyond the Company's control, employees will not be covered by 4.01 (h) above.
- j) Senior, capable and willing employees required to do one (1) Brewhouse/Cellar check per day shall receive four (4) hours pay. Employees required to do two (2) Brewhouse/Cellar checks per day shall receive six (6) hours pay. In the event a Brewhouse/Cellar check requires more than four (4) hours work, then the employee shall be paid at the premium rate for all hours worked.
- k) Capable and willing employees required to do weekend coverage will receive twelve (12) hours straight time pay per day.

Weekend coverage will include being on call and doing two (2) plant checks per day.

Eligible employees will be scheduled by:

- i. Employees who have not had the opportunity to work forty (40) hours in the preceding week.
 - ii. Seniority.
- l) Any employee called back for any reason shall receive not less than four (4) hours pay at the prevailing rate. Notwithstanding the foregoing, an engineer who is designated as on call and attends a false alarm shall receive two (2) hours at the prevailing rate.
 - m) The filler shall be scheduled to start at 7:00 a.m. on all eight (8) hour production days or at 6:00 a.m. on all ten (10) hour production days unless otherwise mutually agreed between the Company and the Union.
 - n) Subject to the efficient operation of the Company the mid-day meal period will be during the fifth hour.
 - o) Statutory holidays and sick pay will be paid according to the regular hours scheduled on that particular week, i.e. the ten (10) or eight (8) hours, so long as sick benefit entitlement is not exceeded.

4.02 - OVERTIME

- a) The following work shall be considered overtime:
 - 1. Work performed in excess of the scheduled number of hours on any regular working day;
 - 2. Work performed prior to scheduled starting time;
 - 3. Work performed after scheduled starting time;
 - 4. Work performed on Saturdays or Sundays;
 - 5. Work performed on statutory holidays.

An employee may contribute up to the maximum allowable amount in accordance with the Canada Revenue agency.

11.12 – EARLY RETIREMENT BENEFITS

Employees who retire after achieving age fifty-five (55) and have fifteen (15) years of service or sixty (60) but prior to their sixty-fifth (65th) birthday, shall have their basic medical and extended health benefits continued until they reach their sixty-fifth (65th) birthday.

11.13 – SEVERANCE PAY

For the express purpose of more clearly defining the rights of the parties to the Collective Bargaining Agreement (the “Agreement”) dated for reference the 1st day of July 1990, and not to alter the terms of the Agreement, the following interpretation is agreed and consented to:

In the event of a plant closure, all pay due to employees eligible for a separation payment as set out in this Section shall be paid as of the date of such plant closure.

The Employee Benefits under the Agreement, which will be maintained for three (3) months following such plant closure, are explicitly specified as:

Life Insurance;
Medical, Surgical, and Hospital; and Dental

For greater certainty, but without broadening the interpretation of the above, Weekly Indemnity and Long Term Disability benefits will continue for claims arising prior to plant closure in accordance with the terms of those plans. No coverage will be provided for potential claims arising subsequent to the date of plant closure.

In the event of plant closure, it is the Union’s position that an employee on an active Weekly Indemnity or Long Term Disability claim should be eligible for severance and the continuation of such claim.

It is the Company's position that an employee on an active Weekly Indemnity claim as at the date of plant closure will be entitled to receive Weekly Indemnity benefits until he/she is able to return to active employment or has exhausted all benefits permitted under the Weekly Indemnity plan, whichever is earlier. At that time, he/she will be eligible to receive severance as at the date of plant closure. Further, it is the Company's position that an employee on an active Weekly Indemnity claim as at the date of plant closure who has made a claim for Long Term Disability arising from the same injury and has satisfied or will satisfy the requirements of the benefit plan will not be eligible for severance.

Further, it is the Company's position that an employee on an active Long Term Disability Claim as at the date of Plant closure is not eligible for severance. Should the need arise; the parties hereto agree to submit this issue to arbitration.

Act and Industrial Health and Safety Regulations according to the Worker's Compensation Act.
- b) Each employee agrees to wear the protective equipment made available by the Company and to adhere to the accident prevention rules and regulations.

c) A joint safety and health committee shall be established in accordance with the Worker's Compensation Act. There shall be equal representation of both parties. This committee shall act in an advisory capacity, and it shall be guided by the principles of the seven (7) point program given below:

1. Each medical aid and lost time accident shall be investigated immediately by the designated investigation team with a view to determining the fundamental causes.
2. Develop and publish data to indicate accident sources and accident frequency rates.
3. Inspect the plant to detect hazardous physical conditions or unsafe work methods monthly at a regular pre-arranged date.
4. Recommend changes or additions to protective equipment or devices for the elimination of hazards.
5. Promote accident prevention for all employees.
6. Recommend and participate in promoting and advertising safety to the workers through communication meetings.
7. Conduct monthly accident prevention meetings with the sole purpose to discuss accident prevention and to recommend suitable corrective measures.

Employees requested to attend these meetings during their off time shall be paid at straight time rates.

d) All protective equipment shall be supplied free of cost with two (2) exceptions listed below:

1. For W.C.B. approved safety shoes or boots, the Company shall pay the employee up to a maximum of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250.00) per contract year. An allowance of fifty dollars ($50.00) towards the purchase of safety footwear shall be allowed employees not eligible for benefits as set out in Article 11.03 (b) & (c).

2. Upon presentation of receipt for prescription glasses and frames required by the employee and/or their dependents, the Company shall reimburse the employee, up to a maximum of six hundred dollars ($600.00) per person every two (2) years. This includes laser surgery and contact lenses.

The Company shall bear the cost of an eye examination for each employee and/or dependent up to a maximum amount of one hundred dollars ($100.00) every two (2) years.

- e) The Company shall provide a proper lunchroom and sanitary conditions for all employees.
- f) New employees will be introduced to the department shop steward and inducted into the rules and operations of the Company. New employees will have sufficient time to familiarize them with the entire plant and introduce them to their fellow workers in the immediate vicinity.

The Company will supply a list of safety wear required, and regulations to all new employees.

12.08 – CONTRACT BOOKLETS

Contract booklets, in a form acceptable to the Union shall be printed by union printers at Company expense. A copy shall be supplied to each employee and fifty (50) copies shall be supplied to the Union office.

12.09 – ELECTION DAY

As per current legislation.

ARTICLE 13 – GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

13.01 – SHOP STEWARDS

Shop stewards, all of whom shall be employees of the Company, shall be chosen by the Union and recognized by the Company. There shall be a minimum of one (1) shop steward for each department.

13.02 – GRIEVANCE COMMITTEE

- a) There shall be a grievance negotiating committee, consisting of three (3) employees designated by the Union, and who shall be afforded such reasonable time off as may be required to attend meetings held at the request of the management or the grievance negotiating committee.
- b) The Union agrees to advise the Company of the names of the shop stewards and of the members of the grievance committee, in writing, and also of any changes from time to time.
- c) The Company agrees to advise the Union of the names of the members of their management committee, in writing, and also of any changes from time to time.

13.03 – PROCEDURAL STEPS – GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

In case a grievance arises in any department of the Company, the parties hereto shall make an honest effort to settle the difference by proceeding through the following steps until the grievance is settled, deemed to be abandoned or arbitrated.

STEP 1

The aggrieved employee shall notify his shop steward who shall immediately request time off from his supervisor in order to take up the matter if the case is urgent. If the case is not urgent, it shall be taken up at the end of the shift. The shop steward, with or without the aggrieved person, shall take up the matter with the supervisor within ten (10) working days of the event giving rise to the grievance.

STEP 2

Failing a satisfactory settlement, the grievance shall be put in writing on the grievance forms supplied by the Union and shall be signed by the aggrieved and the shop steward and presented to the supervisor within a maximum of ten (10) working days from the date the matter was first raised with the supervisor at Step 1. The supervisor shall give their answer within three (3) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays excluded) of the grievance being raised, after which the third step may be invoked.

STEP 3

Within ten (10) working days of the presentation at Step 2, the grievance shall be taken up between the grievance negotiating committee and the management committee. The management committee shall give their answer within five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays excluded) from the institution of this step, after which the fourth step may be invoked.

STEP 4

If the matter has not been resolved, the Union and the Company shall each have the option of a further meeting involving the Union Business Agent and Company Representative, along with the respective grievance negotiating committee before proceeding to arbitration. Said meeting shall, wherever possible, take place within thirty (30) days of the Company's response at Step 3.

STEP 5

Any grievance which has been properly processed through the preceding steps of the grievance procedure without being settled may be submitted to an arbitration board composed of one (1) representative chosen by the Union and one (1) representative chosen by the Company and an impartial arbitrator who shall act as chairman of the board.

At the time that either party serves notice, in writing, of its intent to proceed to arbitration it shall, at the same time notify the other party of the name of its representative. The other party shall appoint its representative within five (5) days of receiving written notice and these two (2) representatives shall agree on a person to act as chairman. If they fail to agree, within a further five (5) days from the appointment of the second representative, the Minister of Labour of the province of British Columbia shall appoint the chairman. The Arbitration Board shall be requested to render a decision within a period of one (1) month following the constitution of the Board. The majority decision of the Board shall be final and binding on both parties to this agreement. The Board shall not have any jurisdiction to alter or change any of the provisions of this Agreement nor substitute any new provisions in lieu thereof.

When the Arbitration Board is dealing with a grievance concerning the dismissal or suspension of an employee bound by the Agreement and it found that employee has been dismissed or suspended for other than proper cause, the Board may direct the Employer to reinstate the employee and pay to said employee the sum equal to their wages lost by reason of their dismissal or suspension, or such lesser sum, as in the opinion of the Board, is fair and reasonable.

Similarly, where the Arbitration Board is dealing with a grievance lodged by an employee bound by the Agreement wherein such employee alleges and the Arbitration Board finds that the employee has been laid off, demoted, or not promoted in violation of the terms of the Agreement and thereby has suffered loss of wages the Board may, provided the employee has raised their grievance without delay after occurrence giving rise to it, direct the Employer to pay the employee a sum equal to their wages so lost or such lesser sum as in the opinion of the Board is fair and reasonable.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, during the course establishing an Arbitration Board, either party may notify the other party of its desire to have the grievance heard by a sole arbitrator. In such an event, the grievance shall be heard by a sole arbitrator, provided that the parties can agree that the matter should be dealt with in that manner, and further that the parties be unable to agree to the foregoing, the grievance shall be dealt with in the manner otherwise established in this Article. A sole arbitrator, if agreed upon, shall have the same powers and authority as an Arbitration Board established under this Article.

Each of the parties hereto shall bear the expense of the arbitrator appointed by it and the parties shall jointly bear the expense of the Chairman of the Arbitration Board.

13.04 – GENERAL GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- a) Grievance involving discharge shall be placed in writing and dealt with by starting Step 3.
- b) Any matter, which may be the subject of a grievance, must be taken up at Step 1 within ten (10) working days of its occurrence or it shall be deemed to be abandoned. Any grievance, which is not resolved at any step, must be advanced to the next step in writing within ten (10) working days or it is deemed to be abandoned and shall not be dealt with further under this Article. In each case, the ten (10) working day period commences with the event or the advancement to the previous step of the grievance procedure.
- c) The time limits specified in Steps 1, 2, 3, and 4 may be extended by the written agreement between the parties. The chairman of the grievance committee, on behalf of the Union, or the manager on behalf of the Company, may file a policy grievance at Step 3 of the grievance procedure. A policy grievance is defined as a dispute between the Union and the Company concerning the interpretation, application, operation, or alleged violation of the Agreement.
- d) In view of the orderly procedure arranged for the settlement of grievances, the parties hereto agree, each with the other, that there shall be no striking on the part of the Union or no lockout of employees on the part on the Company during the processing of any grievance or arising out of an award of a Board of Arbitration determining the same.

13.05 – TROUBLESHOOTER

ARBITRATION

Any grievance which has been properly processed through the preceding steps of the grievance procedure without being settled may be submitted to arbitration or an industry trouble shooter as agreed to by the parties. Grievances may be submitted to arbitration within three (3) months from the first Grievance Review Board Meeting following the Step 3 written response to the grievance. The union will provide dates of all Grievance Review Board meetings, upon request, at the beginning of each calendar year.

Industry Trouble Shooter

- a) Where a difference arises between the parties relating to the dismissal, discipline or suspension of an employee or to the interpretation, application or alleged violation of this Agreement including any question as to whether a matter is arbitral, during the term of the Collective Agreement, such difference may be referred to an industry trouble shooter.

In the event the parties are unable to agree on an industry trouble shooter within a period of thirty (30) calendar days, either party may apply to the Minister of Labour for the Province of British Columbia to appoint such person.

The parties will endeavor to reach an agreed to statement of facts prior to the hearing. The recommendation from a trouble shooter shall not be binding without mutual agreement by the parties.

- b) Where the parties agree to invoke industry trouble shooter the appropriate process will apply notwithstanding the provisions of Article 13 of the Agreement and the parties shall not be entitled to thereafter invoke arbitration process in Article 13, Section 5(i)

- c) The location of the hearings is to be agreed to by the parties. The parties may agree in advance to deal with one (1) or more grievances over the course of the day scheduled for the hearing.
- d) As the process is intended to be non-legal, outside lawyers will not be retained to represent either party during an industry trouble shooter. All presentations should be short and concise and are to include a comprehensive opening statement. The parties agree to make limited use of authorities during their presentation.
- e) Prior to rendering a decision, the industry trouble shooter may assist the parties in mediating a resolution to the grievance.
- f) Where mediation fails, or is not appropriate, a decision shall be rendered as contemplated within and may include an immediate verbal award if the parties so agree. Otherwise, the decision of the industry trouble shooter is to be completed and delivered in ten (10) working days of the hearing.
- g) The industry trouble shooter shall have the power and authority to conclusively settle the dispute and his/her decision shall be binding on both parties. The industry trouble shooter shall not have the power to change the Collective Agreement or to alter, modify, or amend any of its provisions. However, the industry trouble shooter shall have the power to dispose of the grievance in any matter he/she deems just and equitable.
- h) Any decisions of an industry trouble shooter will be non-precedential.

SINGLE ARBITRATOR

- i) The grievance will be submitted to an Arbitration Board composed of a sole arbitrator, mutually agreed to by the Company and the Union, who shall act as chairman. At the time that either party services notice, in writing, of its intention to proceed to arbitration it shall, at the same time, notify the other party of the name of its legal representative. The other party shall appoint its legal representative within five (5) calendar days of receiving written notice and these two (2) legal representatives shall agree on a person to act as sole arbitrator. Unless mutually agreed to, if they fail to agree within fourteen (14) calendar days from the appointment of the second legal representative, the Minister of Labour of British Columbia shall appoint a sole arbitrator.

Each of the parties shall bear the expenses of an arbitrator or industry trouble shooter.

ARTICLE 14 – SPECIAL PROGRAMS

The parties to negotiate a jointly trusted Employee Assistance Program. Which will be available to all employees of the Company and funded by the Employer. The target date for implementation of such a program shall be August 31, 1993 or as soon thereafter as is possible. This program will be implemented on a trial basis for the first two (2) years of operation and will be reviewed by the parties regarding its continuation during the 24th month of operation.

- a) The Company/Union recognizes that alcoholism/substance abuse is an illness, and shall endeavour to accommodate all employees who are suffering the disease in the following manner.

Where the employee admittedly suffers the disease of alcoholism/substance abuse and/or where the Company suspects, due to just cause, that an employee suffers the disease of alcoholism/substance abuse. The Company shall have the right to request the employee be under the care of a qualified physician to obtain a complete diagnosis/treatment of the disease.

Upon confirmation of the employee's responsibility shall be the following:

- i) Shall sign a release of information containing the physician's diagnosis, as well as prescribed treatment program from the physician to the Company.

- ii) Shall follow through with all aspects of treatment prescribed by the attending physicians.

The Company's responsibility shall be the following:

- i) To officially request in writing, aspects of treatment prescribed treatment program from the physician to the Company.
- ii) Shall bore all costs for initial diagnosis, written confirmations and progress reports, and treatment in regard to the treatment of the said employee. With the exceptions that in the event the physician recommends that the employee attend treatment centre, the Employer shall pay for the initial costs of such, however shall be entitled to recover one half of such costs, after treatment has been achieved, through a mutually agreed upon repayment schedule of the employees' payroll deductions.

ARTICLE 15 – PRODUCTION BONUS

1. A lump sum volume incentive will be made available within one (1) month of each fiscal year end (March 31st), within the term of this contract for distribution to all employees on the seniority list at the fiscal year end date.
2. For each 5000 hectolitres brewed, packaged and co-packed above the base volume of 150,000 hectolitres brewed and packaged and co-packed during the previous fiscal year, 0.5% of the actual working wages paid, (excluding time off, benefits and severance pay), in the previous fiscal year (April 1st to March 31st), to a maximum of 3% (or a total volume of 180,000 hectolitres brewed, packaged, and co-packed), will be made available.
3. Each employee on the seniority list shall receive a percentage of these funds equal to the percentage of the total gross wages that each employee received during the previous fiscal year.

ARTICLE 16 – DURATION OF AGREEMENT

This Agreement shall remain in full force and effect from July 1, 2025, until June 30, 2028.

1. During the term of the Agreement there shall be no strikes or lockouts whatsoever.
2. This Agreement is signed to ratification and said settlement shall be effective immediately.
