

Rules for the new Late Model Class

Engine:

- Steel Block Only.
- No Dry Sump Systems.
- No Fuel Injection Systems

Weight:

- Minimum Weight: 2,300lbs

Tires:

- Tires Must durometer "40" or higher after the race.

Body Specifications:

- Conventional Late Model-style body.
- No Fins or raised lips allowed along the length of the body
- Spoilers Must not exceed 8 inches in height and 72 inches in width
- No wings or walls permitted

Fuel:

- The use of nitromethane, nitrous oxide, or any fuel additives or substances designed to enhance engine performance is prohibited

Suspension:

- The final assembled attaching (Radius) rods must not have the capability to dynamically change length by any means or device.
- Random checks will be conducted to enforce compliance.