Monthly Devotional—overcoming battles in spiritual issues

When Israel faced a battle they couldn't win, they did a few key things that can help us, too:

1. They asked God for help. Instead of turning to social media or friends, they went straight to God. You should do the same—talk to Him about your problems and listen to what He says through prayer and His Word.
2. Surrounded themselves with believers. Not everyone gives good advice. When life gets formidable, lean on friends who follow Jesus. Being around others who look to God for guidance strengthens you.
3. Surrendered to God: They gave their worries to God because they knew they couldn't control everything. Jesus invites you to give Him your burdens, and He will give you rest.
4. Praised God before the victory: Even before the battle was won, they worshiped God, trusting that He would come through. When you're discouraged, praise God, knowing He can do the impossible.

Jesus said, "You will have trouble, but take heart—I have overcome the world." God is with you in every battle. Look up and trust Him!

Homer says, “Homeschooling and public schooling are as opposite as two sides of a coin. In a homeschooling environment, the teacher need not be certified, but the child MUST learn. In a public school environment, the teacher MUST be certified, but the child need NOT learn.”

Why to homeschool

Educating a man in mind and not morals is to educate a menace to society.
