Overview

The first case of COVID-19, the respiratory disease caused by novel coronavirus SARS-CoV-2 in Monroe County was confirmed on 3/20/20.

Governor Ron DeSantis issued Executive Order 20-71 which states that all Florida restaurants are now allowed to provide takeout and delivery services only (this includes Alcohol). The order also calls for the closure of all gyms and fitness centers.

Monroe County officials close hotels, guest houses, short-term rentals in RV parks and vacation rentals beginning at 6 p.m. Sunday, March 22. "Transient rentals of any duration are not allowed: Hotels, motels, guesthouses, campgrounds, RV parks, timeshares, vacation homes, marina slips, etc. If you are staying in lodging that is not your house and not a long term rental and you do not live here or provide essential services here in Monroe County, you are to leave by 6 p.m. on Sunday. If you are in a long term lease at a vacation home property, more than a month, you are allowed to stay for the duration of your lease, you cannot extend the lease at this time."

Monroe County offices will be closed to the public effective today. The closures will be in effect until April 6 and will be reviewed continually. All essential services, like solid waste, social services, animal control, and emergency management, will continue to operate. The County is encouraging those in the community who can work from home to do so, especially if they are considered a part of the vulnerable population.

The Monroe County Library System branches will close to in-person visits effective Saturday, March 21 at 6 p.m. The libraries will stay open on Saturday to allow patrons the opportunity to prepare for this prolonged closure by returning any outstanding items, checkout new materials and use the computers to complete any unfinished work or communication needs

County-owned parks and beaches remain open so residents can practice social distancing that is productive for mental and physical health.

MARCH 23

Annual Food Drive

To benefit St. Peter's Pantry in Big Pine Key

Please leave non perishable, non expired food and personal hygiene products near your mailbox or near the "curb" by 9 a.m. on March 23.

This year the folks at the Pantry have said they have plenty of pasta/rice but could use the following:

- canned meat/tuna
- Chef-Boy-Ar-Dee type products
- personal hygiene products such as toothpaste, brushes, deodorant, etc;
- laundry products.

They will, however, accept anything we bring and are extremely grateful for all the donations.

Last year our donations helped over 150 families in need in the lower Keys.

If you would like to help pick up or sort the goods, please come to 1055 Flagship Drive around 9 a.m. on the morning of March 23.

Your help and your generosity to the food drive is greatly appreciated..
