NKCPSCD Certified Judge Application

National Kennel Club (hereinafter "NKC") has certain certification standards or variations of standards that are recognized within certain organizations and forums, including but not limited to, certain courts of law within the United States of America. NKC is not responsible for those that do not abide by or adhere to those certification and/or other standards utilized by NKC. NKC recognizes certifications submitted only by NKC Master Trainers or NKC Certified Judges. If it is determined by NKC, in its sole discretion, that a Master Trainer or Certified Judge falsified or passed a canine team that did not meet the certification standards of NKC, that person or people may be permanently removed as a Master Trainer or Certified Judge. Additionally, the canine team or teams in question will be required to recertify. NKC does not provide any guarantee or warranty that any canine is of a certain standard or quality or fit for any particular use or purpose, and the parties specifically waive and release any and all claims, liabilities or warranties of any kind as to NKC.
