

TOPM 2018 Annual Report

REPORT DATE: January 30, 2019

2018 Temple Of Praise Ministries became recognized as a public charity by the Internal Revenue Service. This recognition expands our religious purpose to include educational and charitable.

TOPM inducted the 4th Saturday of August annually as Empowerment Day, which celebrates the accomplishments and recognizes the positive attributes of North St. Louis. On this day TOPM introduced its educational purpose by hosting a community forum, "The City of St. Louis: From a Crime Problem to a Crime Crisis" and its charitable purpose introducing Empowerment Partners, PARAQUAD, NAMI, Job Corps, Time 4 Fun, H.A.R.D. and City of St. Louis Police Department.

October, 2018 TOPM adopted P.T. Bosley Estates as our first religious activity to serve seniors and persons with disabilities.

December 2018, TOPM elected Angela M. Towers as its new Assistant Director and entered into partnership with the YMCA O'Fallon Park Recreation Complex.

2018, TOPM received sponsorship from American Dental Association, Grandberry Mortuary and First Choice Health Services. We thank our sponsors for their valuable support.

Our continued efforts to support North St. Louis in 2019 is highlighted as following:

Religious: Crime is linked to the public health problem, violent behavior our focus is to teach the bible principle of "Power to Overcome".

Educational: Building from the panel discussion on a crime crisis, TOPM is hosting "Talk With Tam's Townhall: Empowering North St. Louis by Empowering North St. Louisans".

Charitable: Piloting "Adopt -A-Block", TOPM program designed specifically for disadvantaged neighborhoods such as North St. Louis.
