YOUR NAME: _____

YOUR KID'S NAME : _____

YOUR EMAIL ADDRESS: _____

MAILING ADDRESS (for books): _____

1. Why do you think your kid might fit in this program?

_____

2. If your child is chosen, would you be able to provide a place for Zoom sessions that is relatively quiet for 60-90 minutes? This location would need to have decent lighting and not include any sort of identifying personal information in the background. (No envelopes with addresses. No local soccer club trophies. Stuff like that.) This is for their safety. Is this okay? _____

3. If your child is chosen for the program, are you okay with Zoom sessions being recorded and featured on internet platforms like YouTube? (NOTE: Zoom also has an "avatar" option in which your child could appear as an animal instead of using their actual face online, if this would work better for your family.) Short clips might also be used in advertisements on other platforms. Is this okay? _____

4. I will take every step I can think of to keep your child safe, but the internet is inherently risky. I (Rebecca) would appreciate (and need) your parental eyes and ears engaged. Would you be willing to oversee your child's participation to keep them safe? This would include things like making sure kids actually sign off of the internet after each session so they don't get into trouble. It would also include keeping an eye on any chat messages participants might send one another during the Zoom session. I would need you to assume responsibility for their your child's safety before, during, and after each meeting. Is this okay? _____

5. . Parents are always welcome to silently observe each Zoom, but only students should participate in the sessions. Is this okay?

6. If your child is chosen, could he or she finish a book about the size and reading level of a Series of Unfortunate Events title in a week? _____

7. When I (Rebecca) had kids this age, our weekdays were packed with activities. Sunday afternoons after church were the least likely time for us to be busy, so I am planning our sessions then. Would the following days and times be available for your family? CHECK ANY THAT WORK FOR YOU.
