COMPANY NARRATIVE

Founded in 1996, Athena Research Consultants (ARC) is a woman-owned small business in southeast Michigan providing historic preservation consulting, and historical research, writing, and marketing services related to the arts and humanities fields for public and private clients.

The company's team is experienced in both traditional research practices and innovative technology. ARC loves history and is passionate about historic preservation! By building strong relationships with clients and partners, ARC fosters an environment of trust, collaboration, and engagement.

ARC's marketing services set it apart from similar firms. The company's team has over 25 years of experience in writing, editing, marketing, and publications, and over 15 years of experience in social media and digital marketing. ARC enjoys finding new ways to promote history and creative preservation solutions.
