

Move On

Music and Lyrics by Joel Hill

- Verse 1
Well now Jesus, he says to me "Friend"
"Third time's a charm, have you made your amends?"
I said, "Jesus, I've more to atone."
"So move on and leave me alone."
"Move on and leave me alone"
- Chorus
*I've got lessons to learn
More bridges to burn
I've got pages to turn before I adjourn
So don't be forsaken, I feel your frustration
But without hesitation, move on*
- Verse 2
Dancin' in my head or at the foot of my bed
Are you there? I though you were dead
She said "I've been waiting so long. Where the Hell have you been?"
"I've got to move on because their patience wears thin"
"I've got to move on because their patience wears thin."
- Chorus
*I've got lessons to learn
More bridges to burn
I've got pages to turn before I adjourn
There will be no mistaken, you'll feel your frustration
And when you awaken, I'm gone*
- Verse 3
I said, "Walk with me talk with me. Stay if you can"
"Tell me your story. Where's your promised land?"
"Cause I'm dialing for dollars for a master plan"
"But if it's over, then come take my hand"
"If it's over, then where do I stand?"
- Chorus
*I've got lessons to learn
More bridges to burn
I've got pages to turn before I adjourn
So don't be forsaken, I feel your frustration
But without hesitation, move on*
- Verse 4
Drink the coolaid, drink the wine
Seventy two virgins all standing in line
Who's to say that fate is divine?
What does it matter if we're just passing time?
What does it matter if we're just passing time?
- Chorus
*I've got lessons to learn
More bridges to burn
I've got pages and pages and pages to turn
So don't be forsaken, I feel your frustration
But without hesitation, move on*
