WHAT'S ON THE AGENDA?

● Jumpstart this 2026 Election Year ●

Make no mistake: 2026 will be one of the most consequential election years for Republicans in our lifetime—nationally, statewide, and right here in Mesa. The Left is organized, well-funded, and already mobilizing. To help, we are beginning the year with a thoughtful, strategy-focused program designed to help our members be informed, prepared, and engaged in the year ahead.

What This Meeting Will Deliver

🏠 Road to 2026 National & Arizona Elections Outlook 🏠

Featured Speaker: Sean Noble will share a clear and practical outlook on what to expect in 2026, drawing on trusted polling data, voter trends, and his vast experience working with Republican campaigns. He will explain what is unfolding both nationally and here in Arizona.

🏛️ Mesa City Council District Digest 🏛️

Multiple Mesa City Council members will join us to provide:

- A recap of key developments in their districts during 2025
- What's coming in 2026 that residents need to be paying attention to
- Insight and discussion on critical city issues, including:
 - The city budget
 - Data centers
 - Utility costs and long-term impact on Mesa families
- Mesa Airport Landing Fees Vote in February 2026:
- An overview of the upcoming City Council vote on proposed airport fee changes to address budget needs and noise concerns, and what it could mean for Mesa residents and businesses.

🎆 A Special Addition for 2026 🎆

As we fight for the future, we'll also celebrate our nation's 250th year—honoring 250 years of freedom with a fun patriotic highlight at each monthly meeting throughout 2026.

🛠️ Tools for 2026 Victory 🛠️

This meeting will ensure our members have access to the tools, resources, and practical guidance needed to support conservative principles throughout 2026, including preparation for the primary elections where Republican leadership is shaped. Most importantly, this gathering is about being informed, engaged, and working together to responsibly protect conservative values at every level of government.

We welcome and strongly encourage every member to attend. Please invite a fellow conservative who's ready to get involved.

MEET OUR GUEST SPEAKERS

Sean Noble

Political Strategist

Sean Noble is a long-time political and policy strategist and a pioneer in independent expenditure campaigns. Sean worked for a decade as chief of staff for Congressman John Shadegg (R-AZ), and along the way he became the go to campaign advisor for conservatives and conservative issues from his home state of Arizona to Washington, DC. He is an expert in messaging, strategy, and tactics in the policy and political arena. Sean has managed both state-based and national issue advocacy campaigns and managed independent expenditure efforts for President, U.S. Senate, Governors, and Congress. He has also managed candidate campaigns for Congress, U.S. Senate, Governor, State Legislature, and ballot initiatives. He is also a co-host of the podcast "Light Beer Dark Money."

Councilmember Rich Adams

District 1 (Northwest Mesa)

Elected in November 2024, Rich Adams began his first term on the Mesa City Council in January 2025 and will serve through January 2029. His priorities include public safety, fiscal responsibility, government transparency, and ensuring the City operates within its Charter. In District 1, he focuses on safe neighborhoods, responsible infill development, support for local businesses, and responsiveness to residents.

A lifelong Mesa resident since 1963 and a graduate of Mesa Public Schools and Westwood High School, Rich has volunteered in the community for over 35 years. His service includes leadership roles on the Planning and Zoning Board, Economic Development Advisory Board, Falcon Area Visioning Commission, Visit Mesa Board, and the Mesa General Plan Committee. He is a graduate of Mesa Leadership (Class of 1989) and Valley Leadership (Class XXI), and has completed both the Mesa Fire & Medical Citizens Fire Academy and the Mesa Police Citizens Police Academy.

Rich was named Mesa Citizen of the Year in 2019 and received the International Economic Development Council's Citizen Leadership Award in 2021. He currently serves as Chair of the City's Economic Development Committee and is a member of the Public Safety and Sustainability & Transportation Committees, as well as the Arizona Museum of Natural History Board.

Professionally, Rich is President and CEO of a regional trade association founded in 1883, a founding Director of Gateway Commercial Bank of Mesa, and brings over 40 years of experience in business and commercial credit management. He holds the CCE, CCP, and CAE professional designations. Rich and his wife Karen have five adult children and four grandchildren. Family, faith, and service are central to his life, and he enjoys backpacking, skiing, camping, and time with his grandchildren.

Councilmember Alicia Goforth

District 5 (Northeast Mesa)

Elected in August 2022, Alicia Goforth began her first term on the Mesa City Council in January 2023, serving through January 2027. Her priorities focus on community planning, economic development, and supporting sustainable growth across Northeast Mesa.

Alicia has lived in Mesa for 15 years with her husband and three children. She is an experienced attorney, previously practicing at Shook, Hardy & Bacon LLP and later serving as in-house counsel for Cerner Corporation (Oracle Cerner), with expertise in corporate, finance, and software licensing matters. She is admitted to practice law in Arizona, Missouri, and Kansas.

A dedicated volunteer, Alicia has supported schools, intercultural programs, and local community initiatives, including AFS Intercultural Programs. In Las Sendas, she served on multiple committees, including Chair of the Community Planning Advisory Group, and held leadership roles on the Board of Directors for three years, helping guide long-term community planning.

On the City Council, Alicia serves as Chair of the Audit, Finance & Enterprise Committee and is a member of the Economic Development and Sustainability & Transportation Committees. She also serves on boards including the Arizona Museum of Natural History, Visit Mesa, and participates in state and national committees supporting cities and infrastructure development.

Councilmember Dorean Taylor

District 2 (Central & Southcentral Mesa)

Dorean Taylor has proudly called Mesa home for nearly two decades. Together with her husband, a Mesa native, she has built a strong family and business life in the city, actively participating in her church and neighborhood community.

She holds an Associate of Arts and a Bachelor of Science in Psychology and has professional experience in corporate training, business systems analysis, and project management, focusing on process improvement. Through their Mesa-based business, she and her husband contribute to the city's economic vitality.

Guided by accountability, fiscal responsibility, and community values, Councilmember Taylor prioritizes excellent public safety services, robust infrastructure, addressing homelessness, and policies that strengthen Mesa as an affordable, family-friendly place to live, work, and play.
