

Mesa
Republican
Women

The Primary is over. Whether or not your candidate won or lost, it's now the time to come together and unite behind the Republican platform and support our party winners. You may have to bite your tongue. You may have to put down old grudges. You may have to eat some crow...but you must VOTE and you must vote RED all down the ballot.

It's more important now than ever before that you VOTE. Why? Because the Democrats are more Socialist, more Communist, more Woke, and believe in the wacky Climate Change Agenda more than ever. If Republicans are going to win, we need ALL registered Republicans to vote and half of the "Other" registered voters to vote for our candidates. See the statistics below.

I can't wait to see each of you all at our next meeting,

Lori King – President
Mesa Republican Women

The East Valley Young Marines is a fantastic program supporting youth ages 8 to 18, promoting a healthy, drug-free lifestyle while instilling honesty, integrity, patriotism, and military values.

This month, the MRW Club is hosting a special silent auction at our table! All proceeds will directly support the Young Marines' upcoming trip to Pearl Harbor this December, ensuring that every child has the opportunity to attend, regardless of financial background. Stop by, place a bid, and help make a life-changing experience possible for these great kids!

The Road to November Starts Here: You Won't Want to Miss This One!

Mark your calendars for Monday, August 10, because our August meeting is shaping up to be one of the most informative and exciting programs of the year!

★ A Special Guest You Won't Want to Miss

Congressman Andy Biggs

Fresh off an exciting victory, we'll welcome, the Republican nominee for Governor of Arizona!

This will be one of his first opportunities to meet with our members following his primary win. Join us as we celebrate this important milestone, hear firsthand about his vision for Arizona, receive an update on the campaign, and learn how each of us can help build the momentum needed to defeat Katie Hobbs in November.

This promises to be an inspiring conversation about the future of our state—and how Mesa Republican Women can play an important role in making that future a reality.

Tracy Ducharme

GOP East Valley Election Integrity Director

 Election Integrity Starts with Us

As election season approaches, there has never been a more important time to get involved.

Tracy will explain what Election Integrity efforts look like across our region, provide an overview of the Republican Party's organizational structure and how it all works together, and discuss the many opportunities for volunteers to serve.

Whether you're interested in becoming a poll watcher, supporting those who are, or simply want a better understanding of how our party operates, this presentation will give you the knowledge and tools to get involved.

Shelli Boggs

Maricopa County School Superintendent

 Understanding the ESA Ballot Measures

This year's ballot includes several Education Savings Account (ESA) initiatives that have generated plenty of discussion—and plenty of confusion.

Shelli will walk us through these measures, explain what each initiative actually does, cut through the misleading language and competing claims, and provide the information you need to make an informed decision before casting your ballot.

If you've been wondering what these propositions really mean, you won't want to miss this presentation.

Be There. Be Informed. Be Engaged.

This meeting is about more than hearing great speakers—it's about equipping ourselves to make a difference.

Come celebrate, learn, ask questions, and discover how you can help elect strong conservative leaders, protect election integrity, and make informed decisions at the ballot box.

Arizona's future is being decided now — and it starts with engaged citizens willing to show up, get informed, and take action. RSVP today!
