

Ligure Club Bollettino

October 2024

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Ciao Members and Friends of the Ligure Club,

I hope everyone is enjoying our wonderful early fall season here in the Bay Area. It's my favorite time of year.

We had another great birthday dinner this month, Recycling & Refuse Collection Night. Many thanks to Ron Risi & Tony Tedeschi for chairing this dinner. I also wish to thank our dinner chefs, Jimmy Chegia, Ray Parenti, Gabby Schoefer, and Brad Correia. I heard from everyone about how great the tortellini and pork roast were. Many thanks to the dining hall setup crew, the waiters, and everyone that either donated to, or helped out with the raffle.

The Italian Heritage Parade in San Francisco will be coming up on Sunday, October 13th. Again, this year with help from the Italian American Federation of the East Bay our float will be representing not only the Ligure Club but many Italian American clubs in our area. Thanks for the help and contributions from our local brother and sister clubs, including the Fratellanza Club men and women, The Colombo Club men and women, the Galileo Club men and women, and the Alpicella Club. I recommend getting out to see the parade, it's always a lot of fun, and if you can, please come and give us a hand setting up the Float on parade day.

Our next member's Meeting will be on Tuesday, October 8th. This is a Steak & Beans meeting, so if you plan to attend, then you must call in your reservation to let us know you are coming. Remember, no reservation, no steak. At this meeting we will be having our second nominations for the 2025 Board of Directors.

Coming up on Tuesday, October 22nd will be our next Birthday Dinner, which will be Automotive Night, co-chaired by Paul Casale and Craig Jaber. For dinner, we will be having Risotto followed by BBQ Smoked Pork Ribs. Women involved in the automotive industry are welcome and encouraged to attend the October dinner.

Looking ahead to Saturday, November 16th the Ligure Club will be celebrating our 90th Anniversary. Reservations are required but the dinner is free to all members and one guest. Don't miss it!

Due to a low volume of ticket sales, the Sinatra Rat Pack Tribute Show that was scheduled for Saturday, October 12th has been canceled. We regret having to cancel the performance but will look to bring in future entertainment in conjunction with the Fratellanza Club.

Our annual Christmas Party, chaired by David Conti and John Carter, is scheduled for Saturday, December 7th. Everyone will be treated at dinner to the ever-popular spaghetti and meatballs. This has always been a great event, especially for the kids. Santa Claus hopes to see you there.

Ci vediamo al club

Il tuo presidente,

David Franco
