

A GANNETT NEWSPAPER THURSDAY MAY 21, 1992

In Sports
Hard Rocker
 Jay Koch aims for a spot
 ■ Dibble loses Reds lead, 6-5
 ■ Issel to be Nuggets coach
 ■ Outdoors/recreation
 Section D

ROCKERS

In Tempo
Flying leaps
 The rush of bungee jumping
Political books
 Women's guide, Clinton bio
 Section B

INSIDE
Tylenol case over
 Girl gets two detentions/C-1
 ■ Thai king steps in/A-3
 ■ New details on skeleton/C-1
 ■ Federated's legal fees/D-5

THE CINCINNATI ENQUIRER FINAL 354

A controversy is born
White House caught up in Murphy-gate

ENQUIRER NEWS SERVICES
 WASHINGTON (U) — Trained in the ways of the White House, the White House press secretary, who is charged with the job of explaining the president's actions to the public, is now being accused of a scandal that has rocked the White House. The scandal is the so-called "Murphy-gate" controversy, which involves the president's relationship with a woman named Murphy Brown.

Fiction and Facts
 ■ It is not the usual setting of a novel, but the White House is the setting for a new novel by...
 ■ There are 10 million people who are...
 ■ 60% of women who have...
 ■ Single women are the ones most likely to be...
 Page A-1

Tough day
 ■ President Bush...
 ■ Thai king...
 ■ New details on skeleton...
 ■ Federated's legal fees...
 Page D-5

What a weekend!

Perot surprising at polls
Strong support in Ore., Wash.

BY E.W. APPLE JR.
 WASHINGTON — In a startling demonstration of electoral strength, Ross Perot, a Texas billionaire who runs an independent presidential candidacy, had won 23% of the vote in the Democratic primary and 15% in the primary for the Oregon state legislature.

INDEX
 Four sections at 10:00 a.m.
 Copyright 1992
 The Cincinnati Enquirer

Innocent claim spurned
Convicted killer dies in Virginia electric chair

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
 JARRATT, Va. — Roger Keith Coleman, who spent 19 years in prison for a murder he claimed to be innocent in a 1983 murder, was executed in Virginia's electric chair Wednesday night.

Springer's show
Chicago show

THE CINCINNATI ENQUIRER
 Jerry Springer will become a Chicago-Cincinnati crossover in August.

Clipped By:

johnckanis
Mon, Apr 13, 2020