

The global forum for
EAP professionals

LAW SIG

Welcome to our first event!

Email: law@baleap.org
Website: baleaplawsig.co.uk
Twitter: @BALEAPLaw

SCHEDULE

1. Aims of the Law SIG
2. Meet the Committee members
3. Quick-fire presentations
 - The UK/Leeds context – what context do you work in? Chris Pajak
 - How do you promote active learning and speaking inside and outside the classroom? – Neil Allison
 - What does criticality look like in law? – Samantha Stark
 - What vocabulary can and should we teach International Law postgraduates? – Jenny Kemp
4. Breakout rooms
 - Networking – you and the contexts you work in
 - Discussing the prompts of the day: practical tips for legal English learning in your contexts
5. What's next for the BALEAP Law SIG?

AIMS OF THE LAW SIG

- This SIG provides a space in which:
 - EALP practitioners can share their knowledge and experience
 - We can learn from each other
 - We can network with other EAP and EALP practitioners as well as with law academics
 - We can address concerns or challenges related to teaching language for law in a higher education context
 - We can explore new approaches to teaching EALP

MEET THE COMMITTEE!

Chair: Samantha Stark (University of Leeds)

Deputy Chair: Jill Northcott (University of Edinburgh)

Treasurer: Smaragda Kampouri (University of Nottingham)

Secretary: Neil Allison (University of Glasgow)

Communications: Chris Pajak (University of Leeds)

Research & scholarship officer: Jenny Kemp (University of Leicester)